

PRESS RELEASE

Appointment of Arthur Lemoine as Offer and Buying Director for Galeries Lafayette and BHV Marais

December 16, 2021

Galeries Lafayette announces a significant evolution within its Executive Committee team with the appointment of Arthur Lemoine as Offer and Buying Director, effective February 1, 2022, replacing Marianne Romestain. In this new position, Arthur Lemoine will support the company's current transformation by developing the distinctiveness and personality of the online and in-store offer.

Arthur Lemoine has held various positions within the Galeries Lafayette group over the last fifteen years, most notably in the Buying Division. Over the last few years, he has developed recognised expertise in various product categories and successively worked in the Beauty and Food departments, before becoming Managing Director of the Watchmaking and Jewellery Activities in 2018. Arthur Lemoine has been a member of Galeries Lafayette's Executive Committee since 2018, and a member of Galeries Lafayette group's Executive Board since 2020.

Marianne Romestain remains with the company and is appointed Managing Director of Watchmaking and Jewelry division for Galeries Lafayette group, whose activities include Louis Pion and Galeries Lafayette - Royal Quartz Paris brands.

Arthur Lemoine, 36, holds a degree in Mathematics from the University of Paris Dauphine and is a graduate of ESSEC business school.
