Don't miss the PLA Annual Dinner!

Come dressed in '40s-era or patriotic attire, swing to music from the period and enjoy a slideshow of Point Loma landscapes, then and now. The WWII-themed Annual Dinner will be held at the McMillin Events Center at NTC Promenade (the former NTC Historical Library) on May 23, 2006.

The party begins at 5:30 p.m. with a Cocktail Reception and Silent Auction, followed by the Dinner and Awards Ceremony at 7:00 p.m.

Your support helps further PLA’s mission, which is to beautify and improve the Point Loma community, making our home a better place to live, work, and shop. The annual dinner and silent auction provide funds for community activities like the Point Loma Concert Series, tree planting and landscaping, new bus benches, street signs, and banners, and enables the PLA to embark on new projects throughout our community.

Donating to the auction is a great way for you to support your community and be recognized for your contributions. The Point Loma Association is a nonprofit, nonsectarian, nonpartisan, 501(c)4 California corporation. The tax identification number is 95-2537997.

The utility box contest continues

Willa Mae Heitman of Locust Street is the latest winner to receive a $10 Starbucks card for correctly identifying the utility box pictured in the last issue, which is located at the corner of Rosecrans and Nimitz. Where’s this one?

Send your guess to Patti Adams at chair@plaweb.org. If you would like to donate to the project, or want to fund the painting of a utility box near your home or business, call Larry Pappas at (619) 223-3170.

Without giving away the box’s location, it was the location that inspired Ann Walker, this month’s featured artist, to choose this scene of a boy playing with his boat on a bench. “It jumped out at me,” said Walker. “I looked at the benches and the serenity of the area – it was so peaceful. It looked like something I could speak to.”

Walker noticed that the box is the same width as the benches in the area, so she decided to incorporate a bench into the painting. She also decided to honor the rich Portuguese heritage in Point Loma. “I went to the Portuguese Hall and looked at the flag,” she said. The boy’s striped shirt captures the colors of the Portuguese flag, and the boat he’s playing with captures the sea-faring spirit of the Portuguese. “There was this old Portuguese guy who came around every day to watch my work,” said

The Concer...t, and Scott/Fenelon. The project includes replacing the existing 16 foot poles with new pressure-treated lumber with an additional coating of asphalt emulsion to prevent water damage. Lastly, the bottom of the poles are being placed inside a five foot high plastic post protector to prevent wood rot.

Approximately four poles will be replaced per month. The cost is approximately $200 per pole. This is an unplanned cost and donations are being sought to fund the project.

Bylaws update
One of the only mundane yet vital events that will take place at this year’s PLA Annual Dinner is the adoption of new bylaws. Bill Klees, Joe Watkins, and Tony Calabrese met over the past few months to discuss changes to the bylaws, which were last updated ten years ago.

The entire text of the revised bylaws is posted on the PLA web site, www.PLAweb.org. Following is a brief summary of the changes:

- 3.1: The board may establish additional categories for classes of membership as needed
- 3.4: Dues shall be set by the board
- 4.2: The Board shall rotate and every year five new members shall be elected. A board member may serve two (2) consecutive four year terms.

Street sign update
The street name sign replacement project has begun! Approximately 10 years ago, the Point Loma Association constructed 28 large street name signs in the Shelter Island/Rosecrans neighborhood. The area is bounded by Keats Street to the North, Talbot Street to the South, Anchorage Lane to the East, and Evergreen Street to the West. The signs consist of 6 inch square, 16 foot long poles, with easy to read street names. The bottom of the poles were buried four feet into the ground and the top of the poles have the face of a Polynesian man, in keeping with the Polynesian theme of Shelter Island.

A few months ago, three signs fell down due to wood rot. The Point Loma Association concluded that the street name signs have to be replaced, and have designated $5,000 to the project. So far, three of the signs have been replaced at the intersections of Rosecrans/Emerson, Scott/Carleton, and Scott/Fenelon.

Bylaws update
One of the only mundane yet vital events that will take place at this year’s PLA Annual Dinner is the adoption of new bylaws. Bill Klees, Joe Watkins, and Tony Calabrese met over the past few months to discuss changes to the bylaws, which were last updated ten years ago.

The entire text of the revised bylaws is posted on the PLA web site, www.PLAAweb.org. Following is a brief summary of the changes:

4.10: Notice of the time, place and purpose of the meetings of the Board shall be given in person, or by e-mail, mail, or telephone at least twenty-four hours prior to the meeting

5.2: Each officer shall hold office until the end of the fiscal year

Nominating Committee results:
The following people are running for Executive Board positions: Paul McNeill, Patti Adams, Bill Klees, Tracy Morgan-Hollingsworth, and Tony Calabrese. Officers will be elected at the first meeting in July.

Don’t miss this fundraiser!
This is the best kind of fundraiser: just buy your tickets, show up, and enjoy wine and light hors d’oeuvres – you don’t even have to volunteer for cleanup! The best part: half of the proceeds go to the Point Loma Association!

The source of our trees has been the City of San Diego, the La Jolla Garden Club, the Port of San Diego, County Supervisor Greg Cox, City Councilman Byron Wear, SDG&E, and PLA and Councilman Byron Wear. We have also received generous donations of design services. Steve Estrada, Land Planner, donated his services for the master plan for palm tree plantings at the entry to Point Loma from Interstate 8, Sunset Bluffs Blvd., and Nimitz Blvd. Dave Kemp, Landscape Architect, donated his design expertise for the work crews at Nimitz and West Point Loma, the Nimitz median trees, and the Dewey School/Rosecrans Place landscaping. Our technical advisor has been and continues to be Drew Potacki, the city’s Urban Forester.

Before we get pushy, let me explain that we are a small part of the overall picture. During the last few years, we have been blessed with some great tree-planting projects:

- 875 new trees at the Village at NTC (Navy housing), 65 of which are along Rosedene.
- 2,000 new trees at Liberty Station, 337 of which are along Rosedene.
- 2,200 more trees are still to come.
- Caltrans has planted 365 trees on the east side of Interstate 8 from Nimitz to Interstate 5, and 100 trees in the median.
- 25 new trees at the Federal Complex on Midway, where the Post Office and Spawar Maintenance Facility are located.
- 1,100 new trees and 300 palms at Gateway Village Military housing on Barnett.
- 18 trees planted by the Friends of Silver Gate Elementary School.
- The condominium on Anchorage Lane will plant 41 trees.

As all these plantings mature - won’t we be beautiful!!!

President

"I'm as restless as a wildebeest in a windstorm, I'm as jumpy as a puppet on a string. I'd say that I have too much energy. I wish I had time to sit down and relax."

Walker, continued

Walker. "He said, 'you really captured Point Loma.' I thought that was really neat, especially coming from someone who's lived here so long, and who saw so many changes. He said that many of the kids growing up here always wanted to go to sea."

It was important for Walker that the box fit in with the environment. "If you do public art, you see it every day," she said. "When you go to different areas around San Diego, you see some boxes that look like they fell out of the moon!" Walker also likes the fact that she incorporated a person. "When people walk by, they smile."

Even with all the good feedback, there were times when she had to force a smile. "Like the time when she was laying flat on her stomach painting the bottom of the box – and the sprinklers turned on. It was too funny. Everyone walking toward [a nearby restaurant] got sprayed," laughed Walker. Then the construction crew was creating a hole on this project and they knock the parking lot across the street. She thought she was doomed, then one of the workers put a cardboard barricade for her. "People were really protective of it," said Walker. "People would tell me, 'I saw people leaning on it and shook them away. They were also protective of Walker's supplies. She once left her paints at the site, and found that someone had turned them in at a nearby restaurant. Passersby did the same thing with a radio she had accidentally left behind."

Even though she spent an entire month trying to paint the box, Walker, one of Point Loma's regular dog walkers, would do it again. The theme? "I'd do a park setting with dogs," she said.

By Hugh Story

A major contribution to the beauty and pleasant atmosphere of Point Loma are our trees. Your PLA Beautification Group has been responsible for planting some 700 trees with help from Team Green of Point Loma, Nazarene University under Dr. Dwayne Little, and prisoners from Donavon Correctional Facility under Sgt. Bolan.
Don’t miss the PLA Annual Dinner!

Come dressed in ‘40s-era or patriotic attire, swing to music from the period and enjoy a slideshow of Point Loma landscapes, then and now. The WWII-themed Annual Dinner will be held at the McMillin Events Center at NTC Promenade (the former NTC Historical Library) on May 23, 2006.

The party begins at 5:30 p.m. with a Cocktail Reception and Silent Auction, followed by the Dinner and Awards Ceremony at 7:00 p.m.

Your support helps further PLA’s mission, which is to beautify and improve the Point Loma community, making our home a better place to live, work, and shop. The annual dinner and silent auction provide funds for community activities like the Point Loma Concert Series, tree planting and landscaping, new bus benches, street signs, and banners, and enables the PLA to embark on new projects throughout our community.

Donating to the auction is a great way for you to support your community and be recognized for your contributions.
