Digital Clearing House Roundtable, 19 November 2019 10:00-16:00
European Policy Centre, Rue du Trone 14 - Brussels

Chair: Fabian Zuleeg, Chief Executive, European Policy Centre

9.30-10.00: Welcome Coffee

10:00 -10.45: Operation and models of data sharing
- Babak Jahromi, IT Standards Architect, Microsoft on data transfer project
- Paul-Olivier Dehaye, Founder, Personaldata.IO

10.45-11.15: Presentation of the background paper on ‘The EU Regulation of Data Sharing’
Inge Graef (Assistant Professor, Tilburg University), Thomas Tombal (PhD researcher, University of Namur), Alexandre de Streel (Full Professor, University of Namur)

11.15-11.30: Coffee break

11.30-13.00: Debate on the morning presentations

13.00-14.00: Lunch

14.00-15.30: Discussion of current issues and cases, based on contributions of DCH members:
- UK Open Banking – Helene Oger-Zaher, Technical Specialist, UK Financial Conduct Authority (video link)
- Data sharing in the automotive sector – Bertin Martens, Senior Economist, JRC European Commission
- Update on the plans of the Digital Citizens and Consumer Working Group – Michael Maguire, Director, Private Sector Compliance at the Office of the Privacy Commissioner of Canada

15.30-16.00: Rules of procedure and future topics for the DCH

The Digital clearinghouse project is organised by the University of Namur, the University of Tilburg and the European Policy Centre with the support of the Open Society Foundations, Omidyar Network and the King Baudouin Foundation

Please visit the website: https://www.digitalclearinghouse.org/