Digital Clearinghouse Roundtable, 10 June 2020 11:00-15:30
Online Roundtable

Theme: Regulating Market Power in the Digital Era

Chair: Alexandre De Streel, University of Namur

11.00-11.05: Welcoming remarks and overview
11.05-11.30: Background note
  ‘Market power and special responsibility in EU competition, data protection and consumer law,’ by Inge Graef & Sean van Berlo, Tilburg University
11.30-12.00: Discussion
12.00-12.30: DCH member contribution
  Development of monitoring system for digital platforms and 2019 Competition investigation into Amazon’s terms and conditions for sellers
  by Justin Thanhäuser, Competition Economist, Austrian Federal Competition Authority
12.30-13.00: Discussion
13.00-14.00: Break
14.00-14.30: DCH member contribution
  2020 Guidelines on the Protection of Online Consumers by Winnie van Heesch, Strategy Advisor, Netherlands Authority for Consumers and Markets
14.30-15.00: Discussion
15.00-15.30: Concluding remarks and next steps

The Digital clearinghouse project is organised by the University of Namur, the University of Tilburg and the European Policy Centre with the support of the Open Society Foundations, Omidyar Network and the King Baudouin Foundation

Please visit the website: https://www.digitalclearinghouse.org/