Wednesday 16 June 2021 14.00-16.30 (Brussels time)

DIGITAL CLEARINGHOUSE ONLINE ROUNDTABLE

Towards new modes of data-based and experimental enforcement

PROGRAMME

14.00  Welcome remarks

14.05  Presentation of the background note
   Alexandre de Streel, Professor, University of Namur & Centre on regulation in Europe (CERRE)
   Inge Graef, Associate Professor, Tilburg University

14.20  Presentation of the computational antitrust project
   Thibault Schrepel, Utrecht University

14.40  Exchange of experience among authorities

15.10  Break

15.25  Presentation of the May 2021 UK CMA-ICO joint statement on competition and data protection law
   Thomas Fish, Assistant Director, Competition and Markets Authority, UK

15.40  Discussion on the future of the Digital Clearing House

16.30  End

The Digital Clearinghouse Project is organised by the University of Namur, the University of Tilburg and the European Policy Centre with the support of the Open Society Foundations, Omidyar Network and the King Baudouin Foundation. The event is held under the auspices of the EPC Europe's Political Economy Programme.