PRIVACY POLICY

Thank you for visiting UMSBanking.com. As a leading provider of payment processing solutions privacy and data protection are of the utmost importance to us. We are committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of our potential, current and former customers’ information.

When you visit our website, you can do so without telling us who you are or revealing any information about yourself. The only information we collect is that which you provide voluntarily. This information may include, for example, name, company name, e-mail address and phone number. We would use this information only to respond with information you have requested, such as program details or pricing, or to follow up on job opportunities you have asked about.

The information obtained will be used for the purpose of providing the services mutually agreed upon. UMS Banking may also use your information to contact you about other UMS offerings and to inform you about general company news and industry trends. This information will be protected with industry-standard technical safeguards and will adhere to applicable standards and requirements as set forth by the relevant governing bodies.

If you elect to provide us with your information, then any data you specifically and knowingly provide will become the property of UMS Banking. This also applies if you send us email. However, we are committed to protecting the privacy of any personal information you give us.

We do not release any customer information to outside independent telemarketing or direct mail marketing firms. Customer information is shared with our outside vendors and/or parties only when disclosure of such information is necessary to complete account set-up, process bankcard transactions, and to perform such services as are requested by you or when applicable law or legal authority requires that such information be disclosed.

UMS Banking has established physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect our customer’s privacy. One of the ways we protect our customer information is by limiting access to information to those employees who have a business reason to access the information. In addition, we train our employees about the importance of maintaining the confidentiality of customer information. We take appropriate disciplinary action to enforce our employees’ privacy responsibilities.

UMS Banking reserves the right to modify and update this privacy policy at any time. If you are concerned about use of your information or want to correct or delete your information that is stored on UMS systems, please submit your request via email or call one of our friendly customer care managers at 800.866.1881.
