

Catholic Tipping Point Baltimore Event

August 16, 2019

Dear Friends Working for Justice:

"If you are concerned about justice in the Church, you must attend this meeting and hear key-note speaker, Marie Collins."

Marie Collins will visit the United States from September 9-20, 2019. Her speaking tour will take her to five major cities beginning September 10 with an event in Baltimore, Maryland.

Marie Collins is the foremost advocate for justice for survivors of clergy sexual abuse and accountability in the Roman Catholic Church. She is a survivor of clergy abuse as a child in Dublin, Ireland and a former member of the Vatican's Commission of the Protection of Minors. Marie resigned from the Commission in protest in 2017.

Marie Collins will be speaking in Baltimore on Tuesday, September 10 at The First Unitarian Church of Baltimore, 12 W. Franklin St. The program begins at 7:00pm with lite refreshments served at 8:30pm.

Street parking is available with additional space in the parking garage across the street.

Join us as we show of our concern on how the Church is treating victims of clergy sexual abuse, the lack of bishop accountability, and the role of the laity in this serious Church problem.

Drop us an email to tell us you will be with us and/or share any concerns you may have. Email : ryansattler@comcast.net.

A Crisis of Culture: Seeking Justice to Reclaim the Church

Keynote Speaker: Marie Collins

Born in Dublin, Ireland, Marie Collins is a clergy sexual abuse survivor who resigned in 2017 from Pope Francis' Pontifical Commission for the Protection of minors due to its lack of effective action.

Marie Collins is a tireless campaigner

- ♦ for the accountability of the church,
- ♦ for the protection of children, and
- ♦ for justice for survivors of sexual abuse.

"Survivors will not be satisfied with more words or promises, they need to see real change."
