StopAntisemitism authored a groundbreaking report grading 25 of the top U.S. Colleges and Universities based on each school’s effectiveness at mitigating and responding to Jew-hatred on their respective campuses. The 25 schools were divided into five categories: Ivy League, Liberal Arts, state schools, and public and private schools with the highest populations of Jewish students.

Each administration received a questionnaire which inquired about their formal procedures for handling antisemitic incidents, the breadth of their DEI initiatives and if they included Jews, and if the school has adopted the IHRA working definition of antisemitism or has plans to.

Additionally, Jewish students were surveyed and asked if their school was accommodating to their religious, cultural, and Zionist views and needs, and if they felt safe on campus and protected by the administration.

Using a report card-style grading system, seven schools received an “F” and only 3 schools earned an “A” – Tulane University, University of Pennsylvania, and Brandeis University.
2022 ANTISEMITE OF THE YEAR: KANYE “YE” WEST

Through social media and weekly newsletters, StopAntisemitism reached tens of thousands of concerned citizens who joined the campaign to have Ye dropped by Adidas and banned by Meta and Twitter.

StopAntisemitism’s ability to respond quickly meant that Ye’s antics were exposed at every turn, whether he was appearing on a podcast where he doubled down on his antisemitic viewpoints or was having dinner at Mar-a-Lago with white nationalists.

When the 2022 “Antisemite of the Year” contest was announced, there was overwhelming condemnation for the disgraced rapper by way of voting with more than 10,000 votes cast. TMZ broke the story of Kanye earning the disgraceful title.
