WE GATHER

PRELUDE

CENTERING AND OPENING PRAYER

Praying

“It doesn’t have to be the blue iris, it could be weeds in a vacant lot, or a few small stones; just pay attention, then patch a few words together and don’t try to make them elaborate, this isn’t a contest but the doorway into thanks, and a silence in which another voice may speak.”

– Mary Oliver, “Thirst”

“In an interdependent, relational, contextual world, our praying constitutes a dance with God that makes a difference to what God can do in the world. For God works with the world as it is to lead it to what it can be. And prayer changes the way the world is, and therefore changes what is yet possible in the world.”

– Marjorie Hewitt Suchocki, In God’s Presence: Theological Reflections on Prayer

“God hears prayers. How? With ears like me?... No, God ‘hears’ feelingly. God ‘hears’ from the inside. God feels our prayers…. God feels who we are and, therefore, God feels, rather than hears, our prayers.”

– Marjorie Hewitt Suchocki, In God’s Presence: Theological Reflections on Prayer

“Whatever the mode of prayer is, I go with it as a process. I find that the answer doesn’t come during it. It’s that then after it, when I move into the world, I’m able to make my decision. I find I can do what I need to do – that then I have the courage or the clarity that I need. It’s always a little after the fact of the praying. The praying prepares the way – it opens it. It makes it possible for me to actualize that possibility which is the lure.”

– from video by Catherine Keller, “Process and Prayer”

Padre Nuestro

Creator who is in heaven, hallowed be, hallowed be, be your name.

Padre nuestro que estás en los cielos, santificado, santificado sea tu nombre.

Your kin-dom come, your kin-dom come.
And let your will be done on earth,
let your will be done on earth,
as in heaven, let your will be done.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive our trespasses, and debts;
for we forgive all those who sin against us.

Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil,
for thine is the kin-dom,
the power and the glory forever.

Listen

Listen to the song of the wind (3x)
Listen, God is singing, God is singing

Listen to your hunger and thirst…

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Matthew 6:7-8 (adapted from NRSV)
“When you are praying, do not heap up empty phrases as the Gentiles do; for they think that they will be heard because of their many words. Do not be like them, for God knows what you need before you ask.”

Matthew 7:7-8 (The Voice)
“Just ask and it will be given to you; seek after it and you will find.
Continue to knock and the door will be opened for you. All who ask receive.
Those who seek, find what they seek. And he who knocks, will have the door opened.”

This Word calls us into deep listening and Divine connection.
Thanks be to God.

MESSAGE

Praying as Discipleship

Lead Pastor, Church of the Village

WE RESPOND
WE GATHER AROUND THE TABLE OF GRACE

INVITATION

In The Singing

In the singing, in the silence,
in the hands expectant, open,
in the blessing, in the breaking,
in the Presence at this table –

Jesus Christ, Jesus Christ,
be the wine of grace:
Jesus Christ, Jesus Christ,
be the bread of peace.

In the question, in the answer,
in the moment of acceptance,
in the heart's cry, in the healing,
in the circle of your people –

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

God be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts!
Our hearts are lifted!

Let us give thanks to God!
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Friends, these are gifts of God for you and for all.
Thanks be to God.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

For the Healing of the Nations

For the healing of the nations, let us pray with one accord;
for a just and equal sharing of the things that earth affords;
to a life of love in action help us rise and pledge our word.

Lead us forward into freedom; from despair your world release, that, redeemed from war and hatred, all may come and go in peace.
Show us how through care and goodness fear will die and hope increase.

All that kills abundant living, let it from the earth be banned;
pride of status, race, or schooling, dogmas that obscure your plan.
In our common quest for justice may we hallow life's brief span.

WE ARE THE CHURCH OF THE VILLAGE

The Church of the Village is a progressive and radically inclusive community that is committed to dismantling racism, sexism, and all forms of oppression. The foundation for all of our theology and practice is Jesus’ instruction to “love God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength and love your neighbor as yourself.”
We seek to build a world overflowing with justice, mercy, kindness, and compassion.

Our church building stands on ancestral lands of the Lenape people. The colonizers who stripped indigenous peoples of their lands used Christianity to justify their actions. We are beneficiaries of a history of appropriation, slavery, and forced migration. We repent and commit to being a community that seeks to repair the harm done to indigenous peoples and build new pathways to love and justice.

We celebrate human diversity – welcoming people of every color, nationality, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, physical and cognitive ability, and economic status. We strongly support environmental justice and stewardship of the Earth. We believe many roads lead to God and are respectful of a diversity of spiritual paths. We believe our community flourishes with many points of view, opportunities for creative expression, and participatory worship.

Families give support, and families need support. Here at The Church of the Village, we choose to be family for one another, and we each strive to do our part. Every member of The Church of the Village family has gifts to bring.

The practice of regular giving in any amount recognizes God’s abundance and strengthens our family. It builds our relationships with one another and expresses our trust in God’s love. It does not matter how large or small the contribution, each donation adds to the flourishing of the family! What’s important is that we do this together, with each family member doing their part as they are able. As we hear in 2 Corinthians 8:12:

For if the willingness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what one does not have.

We all work together as members and supporters of our spiritual community to foster the ministries and mission of the Church of the Village. Here are ways you can offer your gifts:

- ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFER/DIRECT PAYMENT from your bank account to COTV. This option includes no fees for the giver or the church. You can set this up directly through your bank for one-time gifts/payments or recurring gifts/payments to COTV. For assistance with this process, please contact giving@churchofthevillage.org.

- VANCO: Vanco’s simple online payment processing services and giving app make it easy to give when and where you want.

- CHECK: you can send a check payable to “The Church of the Village,” and mail it to:

  Church of the Village
  PO Box 167
  New York, NY 10113

For assistance with using any of these methods or to talk about remembering Church of the Village in your will, email giving@churchofthevillage.org. Please note - emails to this address should be about how we can help you set up your giving process but should NOT include any specific information about pledge amounts, gift amounts, or any other confidential information from the individual sending the message.

Thank you for being a part of the family of The Church of the Village and supporting the work and ministry of this community!

IN THE WAY OF JESUS: AN ADVENTURE OF IMAGINATION AND COMMITMENT
A New Worship Series

What guides and organizes your life? What are the values and dreams that fire your imagination and inspire your commitments? Join us as theologian, philosopher, and environmentalist, Dr. John Cobb, launches our new worship series. We will explore how being a disciple of Jesus can inspire, guide, and center our choices in ways that lead to the wellbeing of all creation.

QUESTIONS
Tuesdays, Sept. 14 – Oct 12., 6pm

If you’re seeking further space to explore new ways of belief and practice, and ask big questions in a loving and supportive context, join us Tuesdays between September 14th and October 12th at 6pm ET. Specific direction of the group will be determined by the members in our first meeting, so come with your ideas, suggestions, and uncertainties as we foster an open space to inquire honestly. Join us via Zoom!

TUESDAY FITNESS CLASS
Tuesday mornings
COTV Online Fitness is on hiatus for the summer. For more information please contact COTV Member Lina.

TOGETHER IN PRAYER
Friday mornings; 9:30am
Our weekly prayer group includes an inspirational reading, time to support one another, and prayers for ourselves, others, and events in the world. We gather by conference call Friday mornings from 9:30 to 10:15am. For more information, contact Deaconess Sarah Capers at smcapers99@gmail.com.

AGAPE SANGHA MEDITATION GROUP
Is on summer hiatus. For more information about Agape Sangha Meditation please contact Joy Sanjek at joyfulwork47@gmail.com.

L.O.V.E. (LGBTQA+ group)
Every Thursday; 8:15pm ET
Our LGBTQIA+ group is re-imagined as L.O.V.E (love, openness, and validating expressions!) will meet every Thursday via this link to discuss a variety of topics, grow friendships, and gather support from one another.

All are welcome as we create a safe space to bring our whole selves, learn from each other, and walk our journeys together. For more information please email PastorAlexis@churchofthevillage.org.

Join Us via Zoom.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT BIBLE STUDY: THE PILGRIM’S PROGRESS
Wednesdays; 6:00pm

The Pilgrim’s Progress has been called “the greatest allegory ever written, now translated into modern English and edited by L. Edward Hazlebaker. We will follow Pilgrim as he makes a journey to the “Celestial City”. Each week we will experience with Pilgrim the challenges and joys that encounters along the way. We will compare and discuss our own Christian journeys with those of Pilgrim’s.

The group meets Wednesdays at 6:00 PM. Everyone is invited to join. Facilitated by Sarah Capers, Deaconess. Join us via Zoom! http://zoom.us/j/713063594 or by phone: 646-876-9923;
Meeting ID: 713 063 594 Passcode: 10011
ROOTS: A SMALL GROUP FOR CONNECTION AND BELONGING
Tuesdays, October 12 - November 16, 7pm ET

We are born with a longing for connection and belonging. We can only blossom and flourish emotionally, intellectually, and spiritually when we make conscious efforts to be curious about each other. This small group fosters deeper roots in our community by bringing people together to learn each other’s names, life stories, histories, traditions, emotions, personalities, struggles and dreams. Those who engage are asked to make a commitment to the entire 6 weeks (October 12 - November 19). If you have questions, reach out to Roots Facilitator Alfida Figueroa.

THE RED DOOR PLACE (HOPE FOR OUR NEIGHBORS IN NEED)
Note: No Community Meal Saturday, October 9, 2021, due to ongoing repairs.

Donations, in person, to the program can be made Mondays, Tuesdays, Fridays, and Saturdays, from 9am to 3pm. Ring the bell on the red door on 13th street or call the number posted at the door.

Food Pantry: Tuesdays from 3:30 – 5:30pm. No early line up permitted before 3pm. Lineup will begin behind the rope at 3pm on the corner of 7th Avenue and 13th Street.

We will continue to hand out bags of food on Saturdays beginning around 11:30am. Guests may arrive earlier to get a place in line; we have chalk marks on the sidewalk at 6-foot intervals to indicate where people should stand at a safe distance.

THE RED DOOR PLACE – NEEDS MONEY FOR FOOD!

The huge increase in unemployment and homelessness means that The Red Door Place has gone from providing food for 1,700 persons before the pandemic, to 2,500 in April, to now more than 4,000 persons every week. TRDP has plenty of volunteers. What we need is money. We are desperately trying to keep enough food coming in to give out to every guest. TRDP is one of only a few emergency food programs in Manhattan still giving out a significant amount of food to each guest at the pantry on Tuesdays and still offering a hot meal on Saturdays.

IF YOU WANT TO HELP, ask your employer, your family, your friends to GIVE! Put out an appeal on your Facebook page. Email people you think would be able to donate.

TO MAKE A DONATION, you can donate online using VANCO’s simple online payment processing services and giving app. Or send checks made payable to Church of the Village and write The Red Door Place (TRDP) in the memo line.
Mail to: Church of the Village, PO Box 167, New York, NY 10113.

GIVE TO THE CHURCH OF THE VILLAGE ON VANCO
The Church of the Village is now accessible via Vanco. VANCO’s simple online payment processing services and giving app make it easy to give when and where you want. Visit https://secure.myvanco.com/L-YQX3.

BECOME A CHURCH OF THE VILLAGE PRAYER PARTNER
Each week, we receive many prayers through our website, the Hope for Our Neighbors in Need food ministry, on prayer cards during worship, and from our Ministers of Care team. These prayers are distributed via email to our large team of Prayer Partners who lift them up to God.

If you would like to join the Prayer Partners team, please email Deaconess Sarah Capers (smeapers99@gmail.com) with your interest. You can submit a prayer online at ChurchoftheVillage.org/prayer.

COTV WORSHIP VIDEOS ON FACEBOOK
It is always a deeper experience to be present with the worshiping community, but when you can’t join us for Sunday worship, you can view the worship recording anytime at Facebook.com/ChurchoftheVillage/videos.

SERMON ARCHIVE
If you missed worship or want to read the sermon again, we post many of our past Sunday sermon manuscripts and worship bulletins on our website at ChurchoftheVillage.org/sermons. We encourage you to read and share them with others.
OUR ADVENTURE IN ONLINE-ONSITE COMMUNITY

On Easter Sunday, April 4, 2021 – for the first time since the pandemic shutdown in March 2020 – a group of leaders and artists led portions of worship from the church building in Manhattan (New York City). On April 25, a larger group gathered onsite to celebrate the Baptism of Robert Jairo Morant. On May 23, 2021, a small cohort of members of Church of the Village came to the building to participate in worship. These developments are very exciting and meaningful for those who had been away from this beloved space for more than a year. They were also meaningful for those online who have never and may not ever step foot in the building.

With the increase of cases and hospitalizations due to the Covid-19 Delta variant, we do not know when we will open to the public. We are doing all we can to keep everyone on-site as safe as possible.

As a faith community, the Church of the Village is no longer tied to a building. This is only the beginning and is part of a much bigger vision for our community.

We are not “re-opening” because the Church of the Village never closed – we only shifted our ministry to be completely online for a year. As the world slowly emerges from the Covid-19 pandemic, there’s been no thought among the Church of the Village leadership of “going back” to the way of “doing church” before the pandemic. Our reality and reach have changed dramatically in a year. We continue to attract worshippers and receive new members from across the U.S. and beyond its borders, as well as from the New York City area. We are on a journey and living into becoming a fully online and onsite community.

People are attracted to the Church of the Village because of our progressive theology, radical inclusivity, extravagant welcome, and focus on social, economic, and climate justice. Many who worship with us or decide to join cannot find this sort of faith community where they live. We believe it is God’s desire that each of us have the chance to have as full a life as possible by seeking the common good in healthy community together. So we are committed to building an online and onsite community to reach as widely as possible. With this vision for online and onsite community, we can re-imagine John Wesley’s vision and say that the whole world, literally, can be our parish.

We encourage you to participate in as many online and onsite opportunities in the Church of the Village community as possible. Consider how you can contribute to the thriving of our lives together. If you want more information on how to connect with Church of the Village, contact Pastor Jeff Wells or Pastor Alexis Lillie.
