

Free Early College Courses for Worcester Public School Students

Worcester State University

Fall 2022

CJ-101 - Introduction to Criminal Justice

A survey of the American Criminal Justice System as a socio-political institution. The police, criminal courts, and correctional, and rehabilitative endeavors will be analyzed within the framework of empirical research from the perspectives of the social sciences. 3 Credits.

Mondays and Wednesdays at 1:30 – 2:45

In Person at Worcester State Campus

8/31/22 - 12/14/22

COVID-19 vaccination documentation required for in-person class

Register for this course here: <https://forms.gle/XdGZSsnBjdh8K2mZ8>

CM-100 - Introduction to Mass Communications (100 MTC)

Television, radio, social media, and more will be considered in this integrated examination of the history, theory, structure, process, and effects of each of the forms of mass media. 3 Credits.

Mondays and Wednesdays at 4:30 – 5:45

In Person at Worcester State Campus

8/31/22 - 12/14/22

COVID-19 vaccination documentation required for in-person class

Designed as a 100 Males to College Course

Register for this course here: <https://forms.gle/XdGZSsnBjdh8K2mZ8>

CM-110 - Public Speaking

Essentials of speech production and speech writing for large and small groups. Classroom practice in delivering various types of speeches. 3 Credits.

Mondays and Wednesdays at 1:30 – 2:45

In-Person at Worcester State Campus

8/31/22 - 12/14/22

COVID-19 vaccination documentation required for in-person class

Register for this course here: <https://forms.gle/XdGZSsnBjdh8K2mZ8>

More information can be found at <https://www.earlycollegeworcester.org/>.

EC-104 - Personal Financial

Planning

An investigation of the major vehicles for personal savings: bonds, stocks, mutual funds, real estate, and retirement and estate planning. Learn about methods for accumulating personal wealth responsibly and effectively. 3 Credits.

Mondays and Wednesdays at 3:00 – 4:15

In-Person at Worcester State Campus

8/31/22 - 12/14/22

COVID-19 vaccination documentation required for in-person class

Register for this course here: <https://forms.gle/XdGZSsnBjdh8K2mZ8>

ED-150 - Introduction to the Teaching Profession

Overview of the teaching profession, including an examination of a variety of grade levels (Birth-Grade 12), learning environments, equity issues and school management and organization. Developmental domains of learning will be introduced. Students will engage in lesson planning, observational techniques and collaboration. 5 hours of fieldwork or Experiential Learning.

Tuesdays at 3:30 – 5:00

In-Person at Worcester State Campus and will include asynchronous on-line work

9/6/22 - 12/13/22

COVID-19 vaccination documentation required for in-person class

Register for this course here: <https://forms.gle/XdGZSsnBjdh8K2mZ8>

PS-101 - General Psychology

Introduction to the history of psychology, scientific method, brain/nervous system, development, learning, motivation, sensation/perception, personality, psychopathology, psychotherapy, cognitive processes, social behavior. 3 Credits.

Mondays and Wednesdays at 3:00 – 4:15

Online

8/31/22 - 12/14/22

COVID-19 vaccination documentation IS NOT required for this online class

Register for this course here: <https://forms.gle/XdGZSsnBjdh8K2mZ8>

SO-100 - Introduction to Sociology (100 MTC)

The nature of group behavior and social interaction viewed through analysis of structure, norms, and values. What makes societies operate, establish norms, contribute to group-think, and more. 3 Credits.

Mondays and Wednesdays at 4:30 – 5:45

In-Person at Worcester State Campus

8/31/22 - 12/14/22

COVID-19 vaccination documentation required for in-person class

Designed as a 100 Males to College Course

Register for this course here: <https://forms.gle/XdGZSsnBjdh8K2mZ8>

SP-191 - Spanish Reader's Theater and Performance

The purpose of this class is to enrich the oral, reading, comprehension and literary development skills of the academic Spanish language through theater. We will analyze plays in order to have a better understanding about today's issues such as immigration, identity, #meToo movement, bullying, environment, or social media. This class encourages students to pursue biliteracy (ENG/SP) using practical skills in the classroom. 3 Credits.

Wednesdays at from 3:30-6:30PM (3hour class)

In-Person at Worcester State Campus

9/7/22 - 12/7/22

COVID-19 vaccination documentation required for in-person class

Register for this course here: <https://forms.gle/XdGZSsnBjdh8K2mZ8>