Job Announcement: Domestic Violence Rapid Rehousing Advocate (DVRRA)

Location: On-site/Remote Hybrid at confidential address in San Francisco
Compensation: Temporary Full Time (40 hours a week). Anticipated pay rate $26 - $28 per hour. Pay rate will be determined in part depending on years of experience related to essential duties and responsibilities. Generous health benefits and vacation package.

Summary
The Domestic Violence Rapid Rehousing Advocate (DVRRA) is responsible for survivor centered advocacy, empowerment, and case management with survivors of domestic violence during their transition into stable, independent housing and safety. The role involves DV advocacy, housing location (identifying and securing appropriate housing for survivors), economic empowerment (identifying and supporting financial literacy, income building, skills building and job searching), and teamwork with other advocates and entities.

Organization Description
Founded in 1988 and voted the Most Inspiring Nonprofit by SF Weekly’s Best of San Francisco in 2019, Asian Women’s Shelter (AWS) is a dynamic non-profit organization dedicated to ending domestic violence by promoting the social, political and economic self-determination of women and all survivors of violence and oppression. Our staff is passionate, supportive, mission-driven, and committed to teamwork and positive change to strengthen grassroots communities and the movement to end gender-based violence. AWS is a local, regional, and national leader in its field, known for its commitment to cultural responsiveness, multilingual engagement, shared leadership, building effective collaborations, and movement-based services and cultural change programs. We value equity, gender justice, language and cultural responsiveness, integrity, compassion and sustainability. Our approach is survivor-centered, trauma-informed, intersectional, margin-to-center, ethically collaborative, and committed to movement-building. Learn more about the Asian Women’s Shelter at www.sfaws.org.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities include the following. Other duties may be assigned.

Collaboration
1. Contribute to and work in conjunction with the Domestic Violence Coordinated Entry System led by the San Francisco Department of Homelessness and Supportive Housing.
2. Work in collaboration with DV advocates from other San Francisco agencies when their clients enroll in AWS Rapid Rehousing Program.
3. Build and sustain effective relationships with other entities in service to survivors’ growth and well being, including landlords, property managers, partner agency staff, business owners, hiring managers, etc.
4. Work in conjunction with other advocates in AWS’s Transitional Housing and other programs to support survivors in AWS Rapid Rehousing program.
Case Management
5. Build and maintain rapport with, and provide emotional support and advocacy to survivors enrolled in AWS Rapid Rehousing program.
6. Create and implement transitional action plans with clients that support them to meet their goals for housing, health and healing, legal representation if needed, vocational training or job placement, and other appropriate services.
7. Provide or arrange essential language access through AWS's Multilingual Access Model (MLAM), or other means if as necessary.
8. Follow all record-keeping and documentation requirements for case management.
9. Participate in regular AWS Housing Team meetings, clinical consultations, and other Direct Service Team meetings as appropriate.
10. Provide client transportation and accompaniment as appropriate to appointments.

Financial Literacy and Economic Empowerment
11. Support survivors to meet their financial literacy, income building, and economic empowerment goals, including connecting clients to money management services, budgeting, and banking services.
12. In collaboration with other advocates, plan and implement financial literacy and economic empowerment workshops for survivors.
13. In collaboration with other advocates, expand a network of employment and job training opportunities for survivors.

Housing
14. In collaboration with other advocates, expand a network of housing opportunities for survivors.
15. Partner with survivors to identify available units, assist households in navigating application and leasing processes (including assisting applicants in resolving screening barriers, and executing VAWA compliant lease addenda), and assist clients in understanding landlord-tenant rights and responsibilities and requirements of their specific lease.
16. Coordinate visits for clients to view housing and meet landowners; facilitate all necessary communication and documentation with landowners.
17. Help survivors prepare for, move-in to, and retain new housing.
18. Partner with survivors to develop their ongoing housing stability plan after completing the CoC program.

General Office Support & Program Development:
19. Contribute to a welcoming and supportive environment for shelter residents and other clients in all AWS offices and AWS events.
20. Participate in and contribute meaningfully to staff retreats, staff meetings, professional development trainings, and program/organizational development.
21. Demonstrate regular, predictable attendance and focus.
22. Support ad hoc organizational needs as possible and appropriate.
Minimum Qualifications

Education and/or Experience: Bachelor’s degree (B.A.) from four-year college or university; or one to two years related education, experience and/or training in direct services/case management, program development and community outreach; or equivalent combination of education and experience in Social Work, Gender Studies, Sociology, Ethnic Studies, Psychology, Public Health, or related fields. Strong knowledge and awareness of issues related to cultural marginalization, poverty, housing, economic inequity, issues related to immigration and language access, gender oppression, etc. Experience building collaborations with other service providers preferred. Experience in project coordination, establishing priorities, time management, and effective verbal and written communication preferred.

Language Skills: Ability to read, write and interpret documents such as program reports, procedure manuals and curricula and outreach materials. Ability to write routine reports, and correspondence. Ability to speak effectively before groups of employees or program participants of the organization. Bilingual/bicultural preferred.

Mathematical Skills: Ability to add, subtract, multiply, and divide in all units of measure, using whole numbers, common fractions, and decimals. Ability to compute rate, ratio, and percent and to draw and interpret bar graphs.

Reasoning Ability: Ability to solve practical problems and deal with a variety of concrete variables in situations where only limited standardization exists. Ability to interpret a variety of instructions furnished in written, oral, diagram, or schedule form.

Computer Skills: To perform this job successfully, an individual should have knowledge of and ability to perform using Internet software (Chrome, Safari), MacOS (Apple operating system), Microsoft Office Suite (Excel, PowerPoint, etc.), Google Suite (Gmail, Google Calendar, Docs, etc.), eSignature tools (Adobe Acrobat, DocuSign), accounting and expense/budget management software (QuickBooks, Divvy), online payroll service (ADP), databases (Apricot), and remote collaboration tools (Basecamp, Zoom, TeamViewer, Dropbox, etc.). Knowledge of basic office equipment should include internet and email, copy and fax machines, telephone and smartphone.

Certificates, Licenses, Registration:
- A valid California driver’s license, proof of automobile insurance, and safe driving record sufficient to insurance companies’ standards and proof of auto insurance are required for any driving for work duties.
- California Domestic Violence Counselor Training & Certification (Training requirements can be completed post-hire through AWS’s training program).
- Housing Quality Standards Inspector Certification desired (can be acquired after hire).
- Proof of COVID-19 vaccination, unless granted reasonable accommodation for religious or medical reasons.

Other Qualifications
- Must be available to work occasional evenings and weekend days.

Physical Requirements
- The work environment includes settings of an office and shelter/communal living environment, and community meeting spaces. The noise level in these settings is usually noisy.
- While performing the duties of this job, the employee is regularly required to sit; use hands to handle or feel; reach with hands and arms; and talk and hear.
● This position engages in work that requires time spent sitting, standing, walking up and down stairs, with a significant number of hours each day spent sitting, looking at a screen, using a computer and keyboard, phone, and/or video conferencing.

● The work of the organization includes frequent information-sharing and discussion not just about healing and support, but also about abuse, trauma, violence and systemic oppression. Must be comfortable engaging in conversation about these topics with others. Must be able to discuss these topics in a way that supports trust-building, effective communication, and teamwork.

COVID-19 UPDATE:
As part of AWS’s COVID Prevention Plan, AWS requires that all personnel who work with clients, or in communities as a representative of AWS, be fully vaccinated against COVID-19, unless qualified for an exception (subject to reasonable accommodations for individuals with medical conditions or sincerely held religious beliefs that prevent them from being vaccinated). Face masks and physical distancing are required in spaces of AWS’s work. AWS stays responsive to changing conditions and regulations of the COVID-19 pandemic.

To Apply: If you are interested in this position and meet the minimum qualifications described above, please:
1. Email your resume listing your relevant experience to jobs@sfaws.org, and
2. Complete and submit an online job application form at https://forms.gle/b7K2YHbNYjWotaQn6.

Asian Women’s Shelter is an equal opportunity employer. Asian Women’s Shelter is in full compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and does not discriminate with regard to applicants or employees with disabilities, and will make reasonable accommodations when necessary.