Tony Dungy Dinner Halted Due to Coronavirus Concerns

Memphis, Tennessee (March 12, 2020) – Due to serious concerns related to Coronavirus, which the World Health Organization has declared a pandemic, The Salvation Army of Memphis & the Mid-South is halting its special event “An Evening with Tony Dungy,” scheduled for Saturday, April 4, at the Peabody Hotel.

This decision reflects the need to take appropriate measures in order to ensure the health and safety of staff, supporters, the families we serve, and ultimately, the Memphis community.

Salvation Army leaders are currently communicating with Dungy to discuss the possibility of rescheduling the event. This decision will be confirmed within 30 to 60 days. Once the decision is finalized, The Salvation Army will contact everyone who has purchased tickets, tables or sponsorships, and contributions will be good for the rescheduled event.

For those who have questions or would like to receive immediate refunds, please email Salvation Army Director of Development, Aaron Keegan, at aaron.keegan@uss.salvationarmy.org, or call (901) 260-9120.

“As always, The Salvation Army of Memphis and the Mid-South remains ready to assist our community when or if the need arises,” said Area Commander, Major Marion Platt.

About the Salvation Army
The Salvation Army, an evangelical part of the universal Christian church established in London in 1865, has been supporting those in need in His name without discrimination for more than 130 years in the United States. Nearly 30 million Americans receive assistance from The Salvation Army each year through a broad array of social services that range from providing food for the hungry, relief for disaster victims, assistance for the disabled, outreach to the elderly and ill, clothing and shelter to the homeless and opportunities for underprivileged children. 82 cents of every dollar The Salvation Army spends is used to support those services in 5,000 communities nationwide.
