century palace now part of the Musée des Oudaia (Museum of Moroccan Arts), and the beautiful Andalusian Gardens near the famous Tour Hassan – a 12th century minaret intended to be the highest and the largest in the Muslim world. Next we will head to port Bab El Mansour and Bab El Khamis, and then journey back thousands of years to explore the ancient Roman ruins of Volubilis, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Sprawled over a wildflower-dotted hillside, a magnificent triumphal arch presides over the awesome remains of palaces and mansions, Roman baths and basilicas, and stunning mosaics. We’ll also take a short walk and explore the picturesque town of Moulay Idriss, home to the tomb of one of Morocco’s most important saints, before continuing on to Fez.

Day 4: Tour of Fez
Today we’ll tour the holy city of Fez, a fascinating UNESCO World Heritage Site. Founded at the beginning of the 9th century by Moulay Idriss II, and still mostly unchanged, this enchanting city has been a seat of government, philosophy, and most notably, religion. The best surviving example of an ancient Arab city, Fez is comprised of the “new” city, established in the 12th century, and the ancient medina, where donkeys and mules laden with goods still trawl alongside buyers through the medieval souk. The souk is a fascinating maze of lanes, blind alleys, and bustling stands assaulting the senses with spices and exotic delicacies. Fez is the perfect place to hone your bargaining skills while buying souvenirs, brightly colored hand-loomed carpets and fine crafted artisan goods.
We will also visit the famous leather tanneries, a honeycomb of vats erupting in an explosion of brilliant color, then climb to the venerated Merenid Tombs for a spectacular panoramic view of Fez.
