Resources for Pioneer Pacific College and Oregon Culinary Institute Students

ACICS was notified by Pioneer Pacific College and Oregon Culinary Institute in April 2020 of a temporary cessation of academic activity due to restrictions surrounding in-person education because of COVID-19.

The institution notified ACICS in July 2020 that they would be closing as a result of the pandemic.

Institution’s notice of closure
https://www.pioneerpacific.edu/covid-19-continued-essential-operations/

Oregon Higher Education Coordinating Commission Consumer Alert
https://www.oregon.gov/highered/institutions-programs/private/Pages/consumer-alerts.aspx

Questions and Answers on the Closure of Pioneer Pacific College – July 22, 2020 https://www.oregon.gov/highered/institutions-programs/private/Pages/consumer-alerts/PPC.aspx

Transcript Requests
Pioneer Pacific College has informed HECC that they are mailing an official transcript to each student enrolled at the time of the school closure. If you transfer to another school to continue your education, you will need to provide an official copy of your transcripts to your new school. Transcripts might also be useful if you decide to apply for a loan discharge.

After the school closure, the Higher Education Coordinating Commission will hold all student transcripts. If you need a copy of your transcripts after July 31, 2020, please see the HECC website page here for instructions on transcript requests. You may also call the HECC at 503-947-5716, or email Info.PPS@state.or.us.

Closed school discharge information
https://studentaid.gov/manage-loans/forgiveness-cancellation/closed-school