“Pioneers Go East Collective is.”

– TimeOut NY - Critics’ Pick

“With charm, poignancy, enhanced by spirited, if easy-going, presentation.”

– InfiniteBody Dance Review Eva Yaa Asantewaa

“Pioneers ‘knocks down the walls between expressive genres, amalgamating music, video and acting into an adrenalinizing experience.”

– Backstage NY

“Pioneers Go East Collective harnesses a very successful experience that’s equal parts wondrous and strange. CowboysCowgirls is a strong gesture about collective queer yearning on a deeply microcosmic, personal level.”

– Culturebot

“A true story and a wonderful rendition about the American Labor Movement and a woman who found herself at the forefront of the protest movement...the music is beautiful, and touching.”

– Maxamoo
Pioneers Go East Collective is a New York-based award-winning collective of multigenerational artists and activists in residence at La MaMa and Judson Church.

Since 2010, Pioneers Go East Collective has been empowering LGBTQ and Feminist artists. The collective has been an incubator of 13 theatre works, produced over 10 series and arts festivals, and has collaborated and presented works by more than 400 art-makers and theatre artists to date.

The Collective presents a regular season of live performance, art and technology, and curated series including CROSSROADS SERIES, and NEW WORKS! OUT-FRONT. The collective has crossed paths with over 400 artists and created platforms of inclusion that have linked audiences in all five boroughs and in communities in New York State, through personal storytelling that blends heartfelt, humorous experiences infused with joy and high-energy.

Crossroads features artists who explore new genres and known performance and art-making modes to share their creative practices with other artists and their audiences. Each evening we witness different generations of artists dealing with actual, day-to-day, contemporary challenges to further discussion between artists, and to activate a network of exchange and inclusion with social and artistic intervention.

A series dedicated to LGBTQ and feminist new works curated by Pioneers Go East Collective. Each evening, the series brings together 6 cross-disciplinary artists to share their performances in a safe space. The intent for the series is to share less-known stories, encourage artists to experiment with new performance modes, and to build a nurturing environment with like-minded artists.
