Thanks to our 2023 Supporters

The AMLD team – made up of partners, advisors and employees and the more than 4,800 golden lion tamarins that live in the wild – would like to express enormous gratitude to our partners who believe in the work we do and help make this conservation effort a reality. We also thank our local, public and private partners, local communities, farmers, teachers, and many others, without whom this work would not be possible.

In 2023, AMLD directly and through Save the Golden Lion Tamarin (SGLT) and the Lion Tamarins of Brazil Fund (LTBF), received resources from the following institutions and individuals:

Zoo support

In addition to the zoos and zoo-related organizations acknowledged above for their technical and financial support for GLT conservation in situ, we are grateful to the 167 zoos around the world and the international and regional studbook keepers and population managers who together maintain a genetically viable zoo population of GLTs to serve as ambassadors for conservation and as insurance should a disaster occur in the wild population.

International Studbook Keeper: Jennifer Mickelberg (Zoo Atlanta), in memoriam; Kristin Leus (Copenhagen Zoo), acting

Europe Regional Coordinator: Brian Carroll (Bristol Zoo)

North America Regional Coordinator: Jennifer Mickelberg (Zoo Atlanta), in memoriam; Kenton Kerns (Smithsonian’s National Zoo), acting

Brazil Regional Coordinator: Mara Cristina Marques (São Paulo Zoo)

Australia Regional Coordinator: Amanda Embury (Zoos Victoria)
