ANNUAL REPORT FOR THE 2018–2019 PERFORMANCE SEASON

Boca Ballet Theatre closed out its 28th Season advancing the mission to expose the community’s youth to quality concert dance and professional dance training. Through the teaching and appreciation of classical ballet, we have equipped yet another generation of students with the self-discipline and passion they will need to face the challenges of today’s world. We continue to make it our mission to build confidence, technical skill, determination, and a deep appreciation for the arts.

Your support of Boca Ballet Theatre enables us to enrich our community through professional productions, interaction with world-class dancers, focused training, and effective outreach programming. Our inspiration through exposure creed is designed to excite future dancers, choreographers, and audience members. All of this exists because of your support!

During the 2018–2019 performance season, we focused on three core elements that represent the pillars of the Boca Ballet Theatre mission:

COMMUNITY

This year, we have furthered our mission to share the value of dance through our outreach programs BBT-4PD and First Step. BBT4PD: A Certified Dance for PD® Program celebrated its 6th season of movement-based classes for those living with Parkinson’s. The benefits of this special program for those living with Parkinson’s are immeasurable, both physically and mentally, and we are proud of our relationship with the Boca Raton Regional Hospital Foundation and the American Parkinson Disease Association which makes this program possible. First Step, presented by the Vegso Family Foundation, has also had continued success in bringing the benefits of dance to low-income children in our community who are in need of nurturing and mentorship.
The ballets that Boca Ballet Theatre presents each season are chosen specifically to expose young dancers to historically significant classical works as well as innovative contemporary choreography. This season, students were exposed to works by dance innovators such as George Balanchine and Jerome Robbins in performances that featured professional dancers as guest artists.

We make it our mission to equip the dancers who train at Boca Ballet Theatre with the skills they need to succeed, no matter which career path they choose. All students who participate in our program will walk away with self-discipline, dedication, confidence, and passion. However, for students who wish to continue their career in dance, we remain the premier school in the area for forging that path. In addition to providing students with the best quality of dance education, we also give students the opportunity to network with the nation’s top Artistic Directors, choreographers, and schools of dance. Many of our dancers have gone on to dance for professional companies such as American Ballet Theatre, Opéra National de Bordeaux, Louisville Ballet, and more. Other dancers have gone on to star in television series on Nickelodeon and The Disney Channel.

This year, our Summer Intensive Workshop and Performance provided a thorough and rewarding dance experience for students seeking a professional career in dance, giving them the opportunity to work with master guest Artistic Directors from top conservatories and companies around the country. We also hosted our annual College Dance Fair, assisting rising junior and senior high school students and their parents navigate college dance programs by meeting with representatives from participating schools such as NYU-Tisch, The Ailey School at Fordham University, and The American Musical and Dramatic Academy, amongst many others. We look forward to seeing which direction our graduating seniors will take their talents next fall!
November 2018 — Boca Ballet Theatre’s annual production of The Nutcracker captivated audiences this year in four performances of the holiday classic at the Olympic Heights Performing Arts Theater, which featured guest artists Katherine Williams and Jose Sebastian of American Ballet Theatre.

A student matinée performance was presented by Linda Barton in loving memory of William E. & Florence Schmidt and Lon D. & Lucille Barton.

ELIZABETH H. DUDLEY PRESENTS STARS OF AMERICAN BALLET IN CONCERT WITH BOCA BALLET THEATRE

March 2019 — In the spring, patrons of Boca Ballet Theatre had the opportunity to share a meal with 11 principal dancers from the New York City Ballet and abroad. The dinner took place at the gorgeous Seagate Country Club and was sponsored by the Chastain Charitable Foundation and Jo Ann Engelhardt & Dr. George Elder. The Stars of American Ballet touring company, in collaboration with BBT, performed a mixed repertory concert, allowing upper level BBT students and trainees to share the stage with professional dancers such as Sterling Hyltin, Teresa Reichlen, Abi Stafford, Daniel Ulbricht, and many others.
This unique collaboration exposed BBT dancers to the talent and commitment of professional dancers, inspiring them to pursue similar paths in the ballet world.

MARLEEN FORKAS PRESENTS ROMEO & JULIET

April 2019 — April 2019 – BBT, led by Co-Artistic Directors Dan Guin and Jane Tyree, staged one of Shakespeare's most beloved works for rapt audiences at the Countess De Hoernle Theatre this April. Sterling Baca and Nayara Lopes, both of the Pennsylvania Ballet, starred with beautiful and haunting performances as star-crossed lovers Romeo and Juliet. Guest artists Lucas Segovia, Rafael Ferreras, Eduardo Pi Iglesias, and Rome Saladino also joined BBT’s cast of dancers, contributing their stage combat skills in entertaining fight scenes between the Montagues and Capulets.

BOHEMIAN HEAT REPERTORY CONCERT, PRESENTED BY KETTERING FAMILY FOUNDATION

August 2019 — In the heat of the summer, Boca Ballet Theatre presented Bohemian Heat, a sizzling mixed repertory performance that provided something for every audience member to love—from the classical elegance of Raymonda to the unparalleled intensity of The Rite of Spring. The show’s featured work Bohemian Rhapsody brought Queen’s legendary rock classics to life with dancing that brought the audience to its feet! The talented attendees of BBT’s Advanced Performance Summer Workshop performed alongside guest artists Kaleena Burks and James Kirby Rogers of the Kansas City Ballet. Scholarships for the Summer Workshop were generously provided by Comerica and Sorotimist International of Boca Raton and Deerfield Beach.
SPECIAL EVENTS

A Princely Affair

October 2018 — Boca Ballet Theatre celebrated the 27th anniversary of its social event “A Princely Affair,” which attracted more than 300 people to the Great Hall of the Boca Raton Resort & Club for a memorable afternoon of dining, performances, and fabulous prizes. Attendees showed their support for BBT by participating in raffle prizes and silent auctions that contributed to the company, whose mission is to continue sharing its performances with the South Florida artistic community. The afternoon’s performance featured BBT dancers as well as New York City Ballet soloist Georgina Pazcoguin, “The Rogue Ballerina,” and Pennsylvania Ballet principal dancer Sterling Baca. This special event was chaired by Arlene Herson.

GINGERBREAD BALL

November 2018 — Following BBT’s matinee performances of The Nutcracker, the Volunteer Guild hosted the Gingerbread Ball, which allowed children to meet the dancers in the cast, inspiring the next generation to follow in the performers’ footsteps. All children who attended the event received a goody bag to take home.

BEST OF THE BELGIANS

BEER FEST

February 2019 — Boca Ballet Theatre, in partnership with Barrel of Monks Brewing, was proud to host 2019’s Best of the Belgians Beer Festival at the South County Civic Center in Delray Beach. This event was a marvelous fundraising event for BBT and brought together the beer aficionados in our community. In addition to featuring an amazing collection of Belgian-made and Belgian-style beers for the public’s enjoyment, this event promoted national and local breweries as well as local food trucks and musicians, who performed live for festival goers. This event was generously sponsored by Mainstreet Capitol and Urban Solar.
DINNER WITH THE STARS

March 2019 — Patrons of Boca Ballet Theatre had the opportunity to share a meal at Seagate Country Club with 11 principal dancers from the New York City Ballet and abroad. This special event was sponsored by Chastain Charitable Foundation and Jo Ann Engelhardt and Dr. George Elder.

THE CAPULET COCKTAIL PARTY FOR ROMEO & JULIET

March 2019 — Attendees of BBT’s Capulet Cocktail Party enjoyed an evening of food, drinks, and frivolity in this underwriting event to support the company’s upcoming production of Romeo & Juliet. Guests had the opportunity to meet the cast of the show, including BBT’s featured guest artists Sterling Baca and Nayara Lopes, both of the Pennsylvania Ballet, who played the production’s title characters.
COMMUNITY OUTREACH
BBT4PD: A CERTIFIED DANCE FOR PD® PROGRAM

This year, BBT4PD, or Dance for those living with Parkinson’s disease, celebrated its 6th amazing season of movement-based classes, and the participants are loving it! Our program enjoys sponsorship from the Boca Raton Regional Hospital Foundation and the American Parkinson Disease Association (APDA). Each class flows with constant energy, led by Boca Ballet Theatre instructors. The director of the program, Cindy Surman, is one of only seven instructors certified by the founding organization Dance for PD® (a non-profit by Mark Morris Dance Group and the Brooklyn Parkinson Group). Team teacher Dennis Lue is well on his way to joining the exclusive group of certified instructors.

Program sponsored by:
Beck Family Foundation

Irvin Stern Foundation
Marleen Forkas
Christine Lynn
Roger & Elena Stein
Marilyn & Jay Weinberg

STUDENTS SHARE THEIR LOVE FOR BBT4PD

“I love everything about the program, and the instructors are fabulous. The classes exercise both my mind and body.” – Ceil Leit.

“Joy, freedom, energy and emotional satisfaction are the words that express my feelings about BBT4PD.” – Beth Ann Krug

“The instructors have been outstanding! The class has been so relaxing and has assisted us all in getting out and moving our bodies! It’s so motivating and the live piano music is inspiring.”
– Susan Carol Marks and her daughter, Melanie Marks-Ginsburg
BBT’s First Step Program, first piloted in 1999, is a special dance program designed specifically for low-income children in our community. Since 2006, the First Step program has been generously sponsored by Vegso Family Foundation. Currently, we are working with the Boca Raton Housing Authority — specifically, the after-school program at the Lois Martin Community Center.

This year, our First Step students had the opportunity to attend a performance by Dance Theatre of Harlem, one of the first professional classical ballet companies dedicated to prioritizing dancers of color. This special performance was a wonderful and inspirational experience for our First Step students! The Artistic Director of Dance Theatre Harlem, Virginia Johnson, even attended a First Step class!
THE SCHOOL OF BOCA BALLET THEATRE

The School of Boca Ballet Theatre was established in 1993 in support of the Company’s mission to expose the community’s youth to quality concert dance and professional training. The School of Boca Ballet Theatre is one of the few non-profit dance schools in the country. Governed by a Board of Directors, all income from the school is channeled into training or performance programs.

COLLEGE DANCE FAIR

Last season, BBT hosted the College Dance Fair, sponsored by Só Dança, assisting rising junior and senior high school students and their parents navigate college dance programs. During this weekend-long program, participants get to meet representatives from top dance programs around the country, take six master classes, attend information sessions about each school, and network with other dance students from across the country.

ARTISTIC DIRECTORS SUMMER WORKSHOP

Under the supervision of BBT’s Co-Artistic Directors Dan Guin and Jane Tyree, BBT’s Summer Intensive Workshop hosts top quality teachers and master guest Artistic Directors from top conservatories and companies around the country. The summer intensive culminates in a full-length performance of a classic, modern, or contemporary work. This year, dancers performed in Bohemian Heat, a mixed repertory concert featuring guest artists Kaleena Burks and James Kirby Rogers of the Kansas City Ballet.

BOCA BALLET THEATRE
VOLUNTEER GUILD

The Volunteer Guild is the backbone of all Boca Ballet Theatre events. This year, our volunteers contributed their time and talent backstage and at the front of the house at BBT’s Season of Dance performances. The Guild also put on two fabulous fundraising events: “The Gingerbread Ball” and “A Princely Affair” performance and luncheon.

LOOKING AHEAD
Boca Ballet Theatre is looking forward to its 2019-2020 season! Here are just a few of the things we are looking forward to:

STUNNING PERFORMANCES
Next season’s performances will include The Nutcracker, a mixed repertory concert entitled “The Spring Collection,” and a full-length production of La Bayadere. We will also be performing repertory pieces at the annual “A Princely Affair” fundraising performance and luncheon.

OUTREACH PROGRAMMING
We are looking forward to continuing our BBT4PD and First Step programs, impacting our community by giving the gift of dance to those in need!

SPECTACULAR EVENTS
Our annual “A Princely Affair” fundraising performance and luncheon remains a staple in our seasonal programming, and we are looking forward to another wonderful afternoon of food, frivolity, and dance in November! We are also looking forward to teaming up with Barrel of Monks Brewing for the Best of the Belgians Beer Festival in February. In the spring, we will host annual cocktail event, raising money for the company and giving patrons the chance to meet the guest artists featured in The Spring Collection.
