About the IFC

rush@coloradoifc.org

Dear fellow Buff,

On behalf of the University of Colorado's Greek community, we would like to congratulate you on your decision to become a student here in Boulder. By deciding to attend this prestigious university, you have placed yourself in a position to participate in many great activities to enhance your undergraduate experience here at CU. At the top of this list is the Greek system.

Fraternity recruitment offers you an opportunity full of rewards and challenges. In our system of twenty two fraternities there is a place for every man to excel in academics, athletics, leadership, campus and community service, as well as social activities that may not be available in other organizations. In addition to these, fraternities offer a common bond that unites each of us in brotherhood. Your fraternity brothers will not only be your friends through college, but for the rest of your life.

Joining a fraternity is a big step in your life; therefore, we encourage you to explore as many different chapters as possible in order to find the fraternity that is right for you. Good luck, and enjoy fraternity life at the University of Colorado.

Sincerely,
The Interfraternity Council Executive Board

*NOTE: Kappa Sigma, Sigma Pi, Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Tau Gamma, and Beta Theta Pi are NOT members of the Interfraternity Council on The Hill

Before You Join

Why consider joining?

- » Know and interact with adult alumni who are advisors, trustees, counselors, members of the house corporation and more. These are business and professional men who volunteer their time to the men in each house.
- » Have a “Big Brother,” an upperclassman, in the fraternity to be a mentor, a resource, and a guide during your transition into college and beyond.
- » Be immediately involved in a variety of leadership, athletic, scholastic, service, and philanthropic activities, which are the core of our chapters’ programming.
- » Have the opportunity to attend the organized, structured, well-planned, and safest social events in Boulder.

We encourage you to sit down with your family and have a discussion about joining a fraternity at CU Boulder. The following questions are meant to provide you with a starting point in your discussion.

- » Why do I want to become a member of a Greek organization during my college career?
- » What am I looking for in a lifelong brotherhood?
- » Am I aware of the financial commitments of fraternity membership?
- » Am I prepared for the time commitment that comes with fraternity?

About Acacia:

The Colorado Chapter of Acacia Fraternity was re-colonized in 2008 after its original founding in 1911. We have since established ourselves as leaders on campus who cherish close brotherhood connections and the active Colorado lifestyle. With interests ranging from sports and music to academics and leadership, as well as strong ties with our local masonic lodge, we represent the best parts of our University and what it means to be a true fraternity man.

Our chapter is endowed with one of the most modern and innovative houses in the nation, completed in 2013. In addition to a fraternity space boasting a library, social space, home theater, and air conditioned dance floor, living spaces are apartment style, affording members the flexibility necessary for both our academic and social pursuits.

We think the men of our chapter, and our chapter house itself, will challenge your expectations of what a fraternity can be, and we invite you to stop by for a visit.

The Brotherhood

Although there is a strong alumni presence in Boulder, we are still young, relative to our re-colonization. This youth, combined with the fact that many of our re-founding fathers are still active in advising roles, keeps us in touch with our roots. As a chapter we pride ourselves on finding distinctive individuals and creating strong bonds of brotherhood. We use member development programs such as Cornerstones to further ourselves. We are looking to expand our membership to establish ourselves more fully in the Greek community. We are looking for men who are strong leaders, who work hard academically, and who are socially comfortable.

About Alpha Delt

The Rocky Mountain Affiliate of Alpha Delta Phi was founded in the Spring of 2016, with a strong founding class of 18 brothers. Since being founded, we have quickly established ourselves as being an incredibly intelligent and outgoing group of men, with our most recent accomplishment being most improved chapter of the year. With only a year under our belt, we strive to succeed. Our brothers are highly involved across campus and are leaders in our CU community, be it in the engineering department, the business school or the Interfraternity Council where we have two members on the board, the first associate chapter to do so in IFC history.

ΑΔΦ is the 5th oldest fraternity in the nation, founded in 1832. Originally founded as a literary society, we do our best to stick to our roots. By joining us, you join an academically elite group of men across the nation, with our chapters being exclusively at highly competitive schools such as Yale, MIT, Cornell, and the University of British Columbia. With our alumni including Teddy and Franklin Roosevelt, David Packard, three Medal of Honor recipients, and two astronauts, you'll be joining a long legacy of great men by joining ΑΔΦ.

We are your opportunity to leave a lasting mark at CU Boulder. In leadership, philanthropy, achievement, and education, the Alpha Delts refuse to accept average. We seize the day, every day, to improve our chapter, our community, and enjoy the wonderful offerings that both fraternity life and Boulder have to offer.

About AEPi

Refounded in 2003, Colorado Chi Upsilon has built a brotherhood devoted to integrity, service, and comradery. Deeply rooted within the Jewish culture and ideals, the membership seeks a standard of academic and fraternal distinction.

The brothers believe that through humility and mutual helpfulness, a driven group of men can come together and create something that transcends the scope of that group alone. AEPi prides itself on wholehearted support of all brothers and acceptance of the individualistic qualities unique to each respective member.

The men of Colorado Chi Upsilon are extremely involved in on and off-campus life, with multiple intramural teams, private and public events with organizations like Chabad, and their annual philanthropy benefitting AEPi's Repair the World Fund. During the 2015-2016 term, Chi Upsilon raised over $7,000 in support of their national philanthropy.

About AGO

Alpha Gamma Omega is a Christ-Centered fraternity. In other words, it is a brotherhood founded on the teachings and principles of Jesus Christ. It is a community of men with a common mind of sharing the gospel. With that unity of mind, we eagerly seek to grow true relationships on the foundation of our personal relationships with God. We desire to mature spiritually, excel in academics, and expand our connections through social events. Since we share this common belief in Jesus Christ, we take pride in the fact that we will share this brotherhood in Heaven.

Values

We value our relationships with our brothers and sisters and seek to deepen the spiritual lives of all the brothers in the fraternity. Membership is for life after pledgship and activation. Our motto, after all, is "Fraternity for Eternity."

»Alpha Gamma Omega has one of the highest fraternity GPAs.

»Dry House

»We hold a beach volleyball philanthropy in the Spring Semester where teams raise funds for charity.

»There is a weekly Bible study led by our Chaplain on Wednesday nights, Lighthouse, in which the community is invited to join.

»Alpha Gamma Omega has growing participation in Homecoming and Greek Week.

»Every fall, we drive down and participate in a football tournament at Pismo Beach, California

About AKL

The Alpha Omicron Chapter of AKL was initially founded in February 11, 1967, and was re-established in the Fall of 2017 after a long hiatus. With a strong core group of 34 members, AKL continues to grow and thrive here at CU. Alpha Kappa Lambda sets itself apart from the other houses by offering a unique experience. All of our brothers come from diverse backgrounds, all with different life experiences. From paratroopers and scuba divers to artists and musicians, athletes and business owners, the men of Alpha Kappa Lambda are diverse and well rounded individuals who share a common bond of brotherhood and a strong desire to be the best of the best.

Alpha Kappa Lambda was founded at UC Berkeley in 1914 by a group of men who originally called themselves "Los Amigos." Since then, AKL has grown to 43 active chapters across the United States, with 1600 active members and over 20,000 lifetime members. With a strong new core group of members, we in Alpha Kappa Lambda continue to grow our organization and brotherhood, not only in quantity but in quality of men as well. Applying the Five Ideals of Alpha Kappa Lambda: Judeo-Christian principles, leadership, scholarship, loyalty, and self-support, we strive to improve ourselves and each of our fellow brothers until we are the best men that we can be.

AKL is your greatest opportunity to enhance your college experience at CU Boulder. Not only does AKL support growth as an individual, but it also offers the chance to make a lasting impact on the community at CU Boulder as well. Being a newer fraternity, AKL also offers you the chance to take part in building and developing new traditions within Greek Life at CU.

About APD

The Delta Chi Chapter of Alpha Phi Delta Fraternity was established at the University of Colorado Boulder in 2001 and has continually since provided members with an unparalleled experience of brotherhood that lasts a lifetime, well past their collegiate years. Our Boulder property is centrally located in the University Hill neighborhood (“On the Hill”) on the corner of 12th & College which provides brothers close proximity to the restaurants and businesses along the Hill and a convenient five-minute walk to campus.

We place a strong emphasis on brothers being good men of character, scholars, and athletes. Friendship, leadership, and service in all aspects of life are our core values. Our brotherhood currently consists of approximately 40 brothers. This allows members to know each and every brother on an interpersonal level and manifest significant friendships that last a lifetime. Being a brother of Alpha Phi Delta not only enhances your overall fraternal and collegiate experience, it builds you into a better man as well. And last year, we proudly won the Homecoming competition among the CU Greek Community.

Originally founded at Syracuse University in 1914, evolving from an exclusive Italian society (Il Circolo Italiano) to an Italian-American Heritage Fraternity, Alpha Phi Delta now embodies a traditional emphasis in fraternity that welcomes men of all backgrounds. Over 25,000 men have become brothers of Alpha Phi Delta throughout its 50+ Chapters and Colonies across the United States.

About Alpha Sig

Alpha Sigma Phi was originally chartered at CU Boulder in 1915. After a 50 year hiatus, beginning shortly after WWII, we re-established ourselves at CU in 2013, led by a group of passionate, hard-working men, committed to becoming the premier fraternity at CU Boulder. Through bettering ourselves, we strive to change what it means to be a Greek Man at the University of Colorado. Now, three years after re-chartering, we are on the way to achieving the lofty goals of our re-founding fathers.

Over the last three years, our fraternity has nearly tripled in size without sacrificing the quality of our members for quantity. This is why the Interfraternal Council named us the “Most Improved Chapter of the Year” two years in a row and “Chapter of the Year” in 2015. However, we did not earn this award simply through rapid growth. We earned it through a dedication to improving ourselves as men and recruiting gentlemen who truly represent the best-of-the-best.

We strive for individual and brotherhood excellence by participating in a wide variety of philanthropic endeavors, service projects, and through a common passion for academic success and the pursuit of knowledge. Alpha Sigma Phi represents the best of Greek Life at CU Boulder, and it is a really exciting time to be a member of this chapter. Join us, and join a brotherhood of men devoted to being the best men, the best brothers, and the best people we possibly can be.

Philanthropy

In the fall we held our fifth annual "Alpha Sigma Phry," which is all you can eat French fries to benefit Homes for our Troops. We raised over $5,000. In the spring we raised over $4,000 for RAINN (Rape Abuse Incest National Network) from having Jared Freid (TFM podcaster) come and give a comedy show.

About Chi Psi

We are a united group of gentlemen who share a common goal of striving to achieve social and academic excellence. A brother in Chi Psi is a well-rounded role model for the Greek Community. Here at Chi Psi, balance is excellence. The mission of the Chi Psi Fraternity is to create and maintain an enduring society which encourages the sharing of traditions and values, respect for oneself and others, and responsibility to the University and community.

Nationally

Chi Psi is a private fraternity of gentlemen devoted to the personal and collective needs of its members. A very selective association of diverse individuals, Chi Psi is dedicated to the cultivation of a unique environment which instills a lifelong commitment to brotherhood. Chi Psi was founded in 1841 at Union College in Schenectady, New York. The eighth fraternity founded in the United States and the fifth at Union itself, Chi Psi is unique, being the first fraternity to be founded upon principles of brotherhood and as a social fraternity.

About DKE

The Alpha Omicron Colony of Delta Kappa Epsilon on the CU Boulder Campus is one of the newest fraternities to arrive on the scene. Delta Kappa Epsilon has one of the most esteemed alumni bases out of any other fraternity, its members including such great men as George H.W. Bush, George S.W. Bush, Walter Camp, Gerald R. Ford, J.P. Morgan, President of CU: Bruce Benson, and countless others. The reason that DKE is able to produce such highly regarded men exists in the centralized traits that are a part of every brother: being a gentleman, scholar, and jolly good fellow. The last trait is of the most importance, for the world is filled with gentlemen and scholars who lack the ability to have cheer, fun, and a kind spirit.

Here in DKE you can not only find the connection to a great alumni base and the tools needed in order to be successful in the world to come, but you will also find the pinnacle of brotherhood. Brotherhood is at its greatest strength when there is a closeness between the people around you. Likewise, a bond is at its greatest when it isn't spread too thin. While the Alpha Omicron Colony of DKE doesn't have the greatest numbers due to its youth, its brotherhood is extremely powerful. Joining this growing fraternity at this stage can allow you to be directly involved in the direction that the fraternity goes, including taking on roles that can give you business and social experience outside of school.

The Brothers of DKE take time to go out and do things that push boundaries and have adventures together that extend beyond the occasional social and themed party. We hope to have a diverse group of like-minded brothers this coming semester and would hope that men of gentlemanly, scholarly, and jolly demeanor rush DKE.

About DeltaSig

The Alpha Rho Colony of Delta Sigma Phi at CU Boulder began re-establishment in the spring of 2016 offering a unique fraternal and collegiate experience. Historically and nationally, Delta Sigma Phi has been built upon the standard that faith, race, and creed should not be barriers to membership and the premise that no man shall be judged on anything but the content of his character. With a rich history originating at the City College of New York in 1899, Delta Sigma Phi is a fraternity in which you can expect not only the establishment of great friendships with good men but also the furtherance and growth of your own character.

The Colorado Alpha Rho colony consists of members of a wide range of majors that all have a unique brotherhood connection with one another. All brothers of Delta Sigma Phi value and take pride in the close connection we have with one another. Those connections are produced not only in the time spent working together on planning what it is we do next as a fraternity, but also in the time spent together outside of fraternal business. About PIKE

Re-founded in the fall semester of 2016, Pi Kappa Alpha (or more commonly known as Pike) has already grown into a chapter of over 100 men. While only being on campus for less than two years, we have made great strides in our presence at CU Boulder. We were the fastest colony to meet the requirements to join the IFC and we were one of the fastest to gain our charter nationally in the history of Pi Kappa Alpha this past winter. As a newer chapter, the opportunity to help create and shape a fraternity into one of high morals and values has never been greater. Our recruitment process is focused on men who will uphold our four main pillars which make up SLAG (Scholars, Leaders, Athletes, and Gentlemen.) Finding men who embody these four values brings our brothers together by finding common interests and activities to participate in on and off campus. We hold our members to a higher standard; however, we understand education and sporting teams come before the fraternity and have fostered a culture of academic excellence and athletic achievement. We do what is best for our fraternity to help it grow and prosper into the future. Our reputation has been growing along with us and we are looking for men who will continue to push our reputation in a positive way on the CU campus and the overall community.

About Phi Tau

At the Psi chapter of Phi Kappa Tau, we look for a group of guys that fits our Cardinal Principles: Leading, Learning, Serving. We are a diverse group who thrives on a foundation of different interests within the house, yet we share the common interest of brotherhood.

Since returning to Boulder as a chapter, we have grown together while fostering a culture of excellence in academics, leadership, service, and brotherhood. The most important thing to us is supporting each brother to help him achieve his own personal and professional goals, while also accomplishing the universal goal of the chapter.

During the Rush process we look for a group of guys who can bring their own interests and personalities to our chapter.

While we want them to become one with our chapter and help continue to build our brotherhood, we want to help them develop and grow with their own hobbies and interests.

We are socially active within the Greek Community, and strive for each brother to have the time of his life while remaining an excellent student, brother, and individual. We want to make sure that each brother is able to have a college experience that he is proud of, and will remember for the rest of his life.

Pi Kappa Phi was founded on the premise, and promise, of creating leadership opportunities for its members. Our fraternity's founders exemplified leadership in the classroom, on the athletic field, in campus politics and within the community of Charleston, the city of our founding at the College of Charleston in 1904. Leadership is the very root of Pi Kappa Phi. It is the concept of leadership that guides the brothers of Eta Gamma in all that we do. As brothers of Pi Kappa Phi, our pride is derived from our unique values. These include the CLASS acronym, Chivalry, Loyalty, Accountability, Scholarship, and Sportsmanship, which every member strives to embody as well as a commitment to significant philanthropy making a difference in people's lives, and to our goal to cultivate an environment centered on excellence in all things. The brothers of Eta Gamma believe joining a fraternity means much more than joining a social club. We claim to have the most fun, but our passion is fueled by and our reputation is founded on our demonstrated commitment to give back and make a difference in our community.

Pi Kapp has had a prominent and positive role in Boulder Greek life and on the CU campus since it was created as a new chapter. We are proud to have leaders among the CU student body who reflect the very values that bind us all together. We are a group of roughly 160 men who are active beyond the fraternity, taking leadership roles in many of CU's athletic clubs, scholastic organizations and other student-involved organizations.

About SAE

Since re-founding in 2005, a short 12 years after regaining its charter, Colorado Chi has grown to over 130 active members establishing itself as one of the largest houses on campus. In that time, Colorado Chi has won 3 Chapter of the Year Awards, 1 Greek Week Victory, 5 Greek Week Football Championships, and 6 Buff Bowl Football Championships.

The men of Colorado Chi also take great pride in their annual philanthropy that raised over $15,000 last year in support of CU and SAE Alum Brian Ash's non-profit organization, Arrive in Kenya.

The mission of Sigma Alpha Epsilon is to promote the highest standards of friendship, scholarship and service for its members based upon the ideals set forth by the Founders and as specifically enunciated in “The True Gentleman.”

Sigma Alpha Epsilon was founded on March 9, 1856, at the University of Alabama in Tuscaloosa, Alabama. Today, the Fraternity is comprised of approximately 15,000 undergraduate/collegiate members and approximately 200,000 living alumni.

About Sig Nu

Established in 1902, Sigma Nu is the oldest fraternity at the University of Colorado. The Gamma Kappa Chapter has initiated over 2,000 members, including bandleader Glenn Miller, astronaut Vance Brand, and many other influential men. Our historic property is one of the largest fraternity compounds in the country, occupying an entire block only a five-minute walk from campus.

The Gamma-Kappa chapter of Sigma Nu is an eclectic group of gentlemen bonded by our values of truth, love and honor. We pride ourselves on having created a culture within our fraternity that promotes and encourages excellence in all areas of life, and a brotherhood that comes second to none. We believe that being a brother in a house as well-rounded as ours is the best way to get the most out of not only your fraternal experience, but your collegiate experience as well.

Brotherhood

Sigma Nu, above all, is a brotherhood. The friendships and memories we form here last a lifetime. Fraternity, for us, is all about supporting one another, and working together to build a powerful collegiate experience. Sigma Nu is not just four years, it's life.

About Sig Ep

The Colorado Alpha chapter was founded in 1904, and was the first SigEp chapter west of the Mississippi. Our historic house was constructed in the 1920s, and has since seen significant renovations- including a new study room, upgraded living area, and a completely revamped backyard. The house is conveniently located across Broadway from the University Memorial Center. We currently have a chapter with 81 members.

Each of our members holds firmly to the traditional values of virtue, diligence, and brotherly love. This allows our brotherhood to sustain a diverse membership of brothers who consistently distinguish themselves as leaders, academic scholars, athletes, and truly balanced men. We consistently hold one of the highest GPAs on campus and within the Greek community. This allows us to send our brothers to various prestigious internships and companies upon graduation. We regularly compete in athletic competitions and team sports around campus. Each year, we host the Checking for Cancer philanthropy, which enabled our chapter to donate over $20,000 to the Jimmy V Foundation in 2017 making it the largest philanthropy at CU.

About TKE

A chapter re-established in 2015, the Gamma Iota chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon is focused on growth and expansion. We pride ourselves in our ability to recruit individuals that want active roles in the fraternity and surrounding community.

As an expanding, medium- sized chapter, we value our ability to offer our members multiple leadership opportunities in planning our philanthropic and social events. Additionally, we offer all of our initiates the chance to personally get to know every brother and member of our expanding alumni network. Pledging the Gamma Iota chapter not only allows you to develop valuable leadership qualities and learn professional skills, but it also gives you the opportunity to better yourself as a person.

About Theta Chi

Theta Chi was colonized in Boulder last fall and has expanded to nearly 50 members in less than year. With plans to get chartered this upcoming semester, it is your last chance to be a founding father of an internationally known fraternity.

Founded in 1856 at Norwich University, Theta Chi has overcome many obstacles, including losing members to the Civil War.

Now, they are one of biggest fraternities nationwide and are expanding to Boulder!

About Theta Xi

Theta Xi at the University of Colorado is a chapter involving men of all backgrounds who have come together to enhance their collegiate career through Greek Life and Adventure. We emphasize being a dominant chapter within the Greek community as well as taking time away from Boulder to experience all that the great outdoors of Colorado and the Rocky Mountain region have to offer.

Our unique Chapter House is located right on the University Hill, directly behind The Fox Theatre. With most of our brothers living in the surrounding blocks, the house acts as a central place for our members to convene on a regular basis.

We also focus strongly on our local philanthropic efforts. Theta Xi Alpha Eta works closely with There With Care, a Denver-based non-profit that is focused on providing much needed care to families struggling through one of life's many challenges. Our members volunteer and help aid There with Care to continue to do great things for our greater Denver community.

Theta Xi offers a one-of-a-kind opportunity within the Boulder Greek Community. Whether it's through athletics, business, politics, or scholarship, Theta Xi develops great men by nurturing leadership and nobility amongst its members. Theta Xi has endless opportunities for you to make the absolute most out of your four years here at CU Boulder that will continue to benefit you for the rest of your life.

About ZBT

The Beta Alpha Theta chapter of ZBT is a truly unique organization of individuals, offering a fraternity experience unlike any other. We pride ourselves on the diversity of men that comprise our brotherhood. Our brothers come from all over the world, representing a wide array of nationalities, backgrounds and personalities. What binds us together is a common ground based upon our morals: academia, fellowship, outreach, reputation, and accountability.

At ZBT, you will find people like you and you will learn the value of connection and brotherhood with others that are different, all bound by a deeper relationship of true brotherhood. Regardless of background, we urge every man that stands behind our morals to learn more about Zeta Beta Tau, a powerhouse of excellence.

Involvement

Every fall we organize Buff Bowl, the largest fall fraternity philanthropy at CU, which has repeatedly won the award for "Best Philanthropy." Our chapter has been recognized as one of the best ZBT chapters in the nation by winning awards from nationals for our athletics, philanthropic efforts, recruitment, and retention. We are an outstanding presence in the Boulder community, for which we were recognized with an IFC award for community service.

Our participation in every intramural sport, including multiple titles in each semester, earned us the IFC award for Athletics and Sportsmanship. We pride ourselves on excellence in every walk of life.

Community Position Regarding CU

Annually Reaffirmed: January 2019

Originally Adopted: August 2007

We, the brothers, alumni, and leaders of the independent and autonomous Undergraduate Interfraternity Council at the University of Colorado, Inc., come together to make the following statements about the common, core beliefs of our fraternity community:

- We are currently one united, independent community, comprised of twenty two national fraternities, with over eighteen hundred individual brothers who are undergraduate students at the University of Colorado.
- Fraternity men and their chapters have been an integral part of the CU community for well over one hundred-thirty years, with many tens of thousands of alumni brothers in Colorado and throughout the world
- As individual students, we are members of our fraternities as well as hundreds of other student-based CU organizations of every type. We are first and foremost serious, degree-seeking students at the University of Colorado and we will always be loyal “Buffs” for life. We know that the primary reason to be a brother in a fraternity in Boulder is to add value to our undergraduate educations and to our baccalaureate degrees through our current life experiences.
- In accordance with our commonly held fraternal values, we strive to the best of our ability to be good and contributing citizens of our country, state, and local communities, as well as good, productive members of our fraternities, our colleges and university, and our families.
- Since the spring of 2005, our fraternity community, the Interfraternity Council, and its member chapters have been neither recognized nor registered as campus student organizations at the University of Colorado. Fraternities in Boulder have not been “affiliated” with CU since the 1960s.
- As a community, we collectively and unanimously chose not to sign the University’s “Registered Fraternal Organization Agreement” in the spring of 2005. This decision was unanimously supported by our IFC leaders, our chapter presidents, our local alumni advisors, our International Fraternity organizations, our International Executive Directors, and the leadership of the North American Interfraternity Conference.

- We fully understand, both then and since, the impact of that decision. Both the Interfraternity Council and its member chapters take full responsibility for the consequences of that decision.
- Since making that decision, we have grown into a genuine, thriving community in Boulder. Working as a community, along with the Alumni Interfraternity Council, we have come together, formed new and better relationships with one another, established higher standards and expectations of ourselves and each other, and learned how to hold ourselves and each other accountable to those standards.
- We know that, individually and communally, we are an asset to our University, the City of Boulder, the State of Colorado, and the United States of America. We have developed outstanding, collegial relationships with many Boulder entities including many University Divisions and Departments, the University and Boulder Police Departments, Boulder Fire Department, the Boulder Valley School District, the University Hill community, and the Boulder Chamber of Commerce, to name a few. We also provide ongoing support and service to many local and national non-profit organizations as well as University organizations, departments, and resource centers.
- We are continually striving for the improvement of our community, our chapters, and our brothers. However, while perfection in everything we do is an ideal goal, it is not an appropriate standard for the evaluation of our performance. It is the Interfraternity Council's and its member chapters' constant and consistent performance standard to meet and exceed the performance of "all undergraduate men" by any objective measure. That includes, but is not limited to, scholarship, academic accomplishment, good citizenship, campus and community leadership, athletics, social activities and behaviors, philanthropy, and community service.
- Therefore, we jointly resolve that at this time we are actively seeking neither "rapprochement" nor "reaffiliation" with the University administration. Rather, we will invest all of our time, energies, fiscal resources, manpower, and organizational endeavors in the improvement of our fraternal community. It is our goal to be the best fraternity community in the nation. This can only happen by the growth and development of even better fraternity chapters than we have today. Such chapters can only grow and develop by the recruitment and "building" of even better fraternity brothers than those of the present or the past. This is our primary goal and our main reason for existing at the University of Colorado.
- In conclusion, we firmly believe that if we do this well, our value as members of the University family will become increasingly apparent to all stakeholders. When that happens, we believe that we will be asked to return to the folds of the University of Colorado community as full partners in a common future.
