For Immediate Release: January 5, 2023

Contact:
Christy Caravaglio, Communications Manager
christy@auburnsymphony.org, 253-887-7777

Rachell Ellen Wong to perform in Auburn

Auburn, WA: Auburn Symphony Orchestra is proud to welcome 2020 Avery Fisher Career Grant recipient, Rachell Ellen Wong to perform in ASO’s January concert. Pure Resonance will be presented on Sunday, January 29, 2023 at 2:30 PM at Auburn Performing Arts Center. Tickets and information can be found at auburnsymphony.org or by calling the ASO office at 253-887-7777. Ticket prices are $40 general, $32 seniors, and $12 students.

Rachell Ellen Wong will perform Felix Mendelssohn’s passionate Violin Concerto. Auburn Symphony is excited to be able to reschedule Wong to perform in Auburn after her performance in September was postponed. She is a co-founder of Twelfth Night, specialist in both Baroque and modern violin, and concertmaster of Seattle Baroque Orchestra.

Also on the program is Dmitri Shostakovich’s Symphony No. 10, widely regarded as his finest symphony. Shostakovich found it difficult to compose in a climate of Soviet artistic censorship. It was with his Tenth Symphony that he began to find a more personal voice in his music. Composed soon after the death of Stalin, this piece is filled with moments of melancholy, rage, defiance, and ultimately exultation as Shostakovich finds and expresses his truth.

A recent addition to the program is Jean Sibelius’s popular work, Finlandia. This hymn-like symphonic poem was written to rouse a feeling of Finnish pride at a time of Russian oppression in Finland a half century before Shostakovich’s Tenth. The selection of these two pieces is unfortunately relevant today during the current Russian invasion of Ukraine.

Enhance your concert experience and join us for Meet the Music, our pre-concert lecture, with Dr. Gwynne Kuhner Brown, beginning at 1:30 PM. Dr. Brown, Professor of Music at the University of Puget Sound, has presented her scholarship at national meetings of the American Musicological Society, the Society for American Music, at the African American Art Song Alliance.

About Rachell Ellen Wong: Recipient of a prestigious 2020 Avery Fisher Career Grant - the only early music specialist in the respected program’s history - and Grand Prize winner of the inaugural Lillian and Maurice Barbash J.S. Bach Competition, violinist Rachell Ellen Wong is a rising star on both the historical performance and modern violin stages. Her growing reputation as one of the top historical performers of her generation has resulted in appearances with renowned ensembles such as the Academy of Ancient Music, American Bach Soloists, Jupiter Ensemble (led by lutenist Thomas Dunford), Bach Collegium Japan, Les Arts Florissants, and others. Equally accomplished on the modern violin, Rachell made her first public appearance with Philharmonia Northwest at age 11 and has since performed as a soloist with orchestras such as Orquesta Sinfónica Nacional de Panamá and the Seattle Symphony. Rachell made her conducting debut with the Seattle Symphony in 2020 when she directed Vivaldi’s Four Seasons from the violin. She also serves as concertmaster of Seattle Baroque Orchestra.

###

Auburn Symphony Orchestra changes lives and our South Puget Sound community through the shared experience of live orchestral music performances and by nurturing the relationship between our audience and our artists. Learn more at auburnsymphony.org and social media pages Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, YouTube.

Auburn Symphony Orchestra is a registered nonprofit organization: 91-1719873
PO Box 2186, Auburn, WA 98071  |  info@auburnsymphony.org