MISSION STATEMENT
We covenant to give ourselves to Christ as He gives Himself to us in the Eucharist, so every person might be a full, active, & conscious participant in His Church, empowered to share & live the Gospel.

SUNDAY’S READING
First Reading:
Therefore, now they shall be the first to go into exile, and their wanton revelry shall be done away with. (Am 6:7)

Psalm:
Praise the Lord, my soul! (Ps 146) or Alleluia
Second Reading:
But you, man of God, pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. (1 Tm 6:11)

Gospel:
"Then Abraham said, 'If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead.'" (Lk 16:31)

A MESSAGE FROM BISHOP COTTA

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
In recent months I have engaged in consultation with The Diocesan College of Consultors, the Diocesan Finance Council, the Deans and priests of our eight Deaneries regarding the future viability of Madonna of Peace Retreat Center in Copperopolis.

The number of parishes requesting use of the facilities has dramatically declined over recent years due to the remoteness of the location, the age of the facilities, the long, hot summers in the foothills, and the growing availability of alternate retreat sites.

The declining request for use of the facilities, the need for constant repair of old buildings and roads, and the need to keep rental prices competitive have resulted in budget deficits over a number of years. The Retreat Center, located on 100 acres of land, has become more and more overrun by scrub oak trees that pose a growing fire risk we cannot afford to take.

John Powell, who resides on the property and has done a marvelous job in maintaining the property, scheduling retreats, and providing a safe atmosphere, is retiring as of May 2020. Finding a person of John's caliber dedication to live in a remote setting poses one more major challenge.

Based upon all of the factors I have outlined, it is the combined wisdom of the people I have consulted that now is the right time to sell the Madonna of Peace property. The funds generated from the sale will be set aside in a restricted fund to be used at a future time when the Diocese will, hopefully, be in a position to construct a new Retreat Center in a more central and appealing location.

I would like to take the opportunity to thank all of the people who have helped make Madonna of Peace Center a reality many years ago. While its closure is a real moment of sadness, I have no doubt that its existence over many years has had a positive influence on generations of Catholics who have been part of the many retreats and events that have taken place there.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the Vicar General of the Diocese, Monsignor Richard Ryan.

In Peace of Christ,
Most Reverend Myron Cotta

THE GIFT OF OUR GUARDIAN ANGELS

It's good to know we're not alone. This October 2nd we celebrate the feast of our guardian angels. This ancient belief has roots in Scripture. In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus implies the special guiding care of the angels. "See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that their angels in heaven always look upon the face of my heavenly Father" (Matthew 18:10). Our guardian angels are given to us by God to protect and watch over us from the moment of our conception until the hour of death. Let's pray together to our own heavenly help: Angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom God's love commits me here, ever this day be at my side to light, to guard, to rule, and to guide. Amen.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

People often think that if they witness something miraculous, it would bring them to a greater faith and motivate them for greater involvement. Such is not necessarily true, as coming to a real and authentic faith still requires that we struggle with ourselves a bit and change our approach to living. Authentic faith is acquired when we see wisdom and life in the words of the prophets and in the teachings of Jesus Christ. All of these point us to a God who has a particular set of priorities for how life is meant to be lived. We have to avoid the trap of complacency that is rooted in preserving our own self-interests and living lives that pursue “righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness.” (1 TM 6:11) Complacency keeps us stuck in the status quo and prevents us from working toward respect for life, equality, and justice, and from advocating on behalf of the needs of the poor, the homeless, and the alien. Are you complacent?

GOSPEL MEDITATION

If you saw someone dead come to life tomorrow, what would you change about your life? Would you say “nothing”? That’s what Jesus seems to hope. After all, we already know what to do. In this Sunday’s Gospel, a rich man and a poor man pass away, the former to damnation and the latter to peaceful rest alongside the Jewish patriarchs. The rich man asks if the poor man can appear to his brothers and advise them to live a more virtuous life. The parable offers a strong rebuke: “They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them.” In other words, they should already know what to do.

We, too, know what to do. More than Moses, Jesus Christ himself has spoken, and continues to speak through his Church. The rich man did not heed the wise words, despite knowing them. If we are convicted against certain Christian teachings in our heart, how much good will miraculous “proofs” do? We know more than the law and the prophets - we know the prophetic law of love proclaimed by Jesus Christ. Are we living like we believe it?

Where in our lives are we like the rich man? Do we know how to treat the poor but still we ignore them in our excess? Do we know the third commandment, but the Sunday liturgy feels “optional” when other weekend commitments arise? Have we heard Christ’s teachings on sexuality, but consider them out of reach for us? We have received a great many truths as Christian people. We are blessed by God with the sacraments and the abundance of His graces. We have what we need - in Him - to begin to live a virtuous life now.

Due to the interest in the New Study on Psalms,
We will open another study on
Wednesday Mornings from 10:00 am to 12:00 pm

Psalms: The School of Prayer

At the heart of the Bible are the Psalms, prayers from God that help us learn to pray. The Holy Spirit inspired them. Israel sang them. Christ himself prayed them. Their words captivate the imagination and draw us into a deeply personal encounter with God.

We will begin an eight-week Bible Study Psalms: The School of Prayer on 9/11/19 at 10:00 am to 12:00 pm in the Conference Room.
Join us to study how to establish a deeply personal dialogue with God through the Psalms.

Remember, the Bible is a library. It's never too late to "check out" a book.

Cost is $25.00 for the Study Guide

RECONOCER A DIOS EN LOS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Llamado a la Compasión
¿Qué es lo que necesita una persona sin hogar? Eso puede parecer una pregunta extraña ya que estar sin hogar indicaría que ciertamente necesitan un hogar. Más allá de eso, sin embargo, ¿qué es lo que necesita una persona sin hogar? La mayoría adivinaría que la persona necesita alimento, dinero, ropa, atención médica y artículos de higiene personal. Muchas parroquias hacen colectas para recaudar esos artículos. ¿Es eso todo lo que la persona necesita? Es fácil quedar atrapado en todas las cosas que vienen fácilmente a la mente para que perdamos una cosa clave que necesitan las personas sin hogar y todos los seres humanos: ser vistos.

¿Cuántos de nosotros pasamos por personas sin hogar y pretendemos que ni siquiera están allí? No tenemos dinero en nuestro bolsillo, no tenemos alimentos para dar y no tenemos artículos materiales que necesiten, por lo que no les ofrecemos nada. Ni siquiera nos ofrecemos a nosotros mismos.

Dar la bienvenida a alguien con una palabra amable es gratis. Sorprendentemente, actuamos como si nos costara más que cualquier otra cosa. Es más fácil entregarle a alguien $5 que involucrarse en un intercambio de palabras de 15 segundos. Hablamos de ser generosos, pero debemos recordar que a veces el mejor regalo que tenemos para dar es simplemente nosotros mismos. El Jesús en mí se encuentra con el Jesús en ti. Un día, tu o yo podemos encontrarnos en una situación difícil, y estaremos buscando compasión. Esperemos que todos aquellos que profesan conocer a Jesús no pasen de largo pretendiendo no vernos.

Me preguntas por un método para alcanzar la perfección. Yo conozco el amor - y solo el amor. El amor puede hacer todas las cosas.
