MISSION STATEMENT
We covenant to give ourselves to Christ as He gives Himself to us in the Eucharist, so every person might be a full, active, & conscious participant in His Church, empowered to share & live the Gospel.

JESUS IS HEADED YOUR WAY

One day, we heard the news that a possible tornado was heading our way. We live off of a highway, and it was traveling along that very road. My wife and kids huddled in the downstairs bathroom. Not many tornadoes surface in North Carolina, so our children were particularly worried because it was something they had never contemplated happening before. The tornado never did come into our neighborhood, but it did cause one of our sons to express that he needed to go to Confession as soon as possible. He hadn’t done anything too over the top sinful, but coming face-to-face with a tornado had cause him to have some second thoughts about his preparedness for meeting God. Hopefully, a tornado doesn’t make a path through your city or town this Advent.

Sometimes, reminders of our mortality find their way into life. The passing of a loved one, a car accident, or a health scare can all cause us to reflect on where we are in our relationship with God. Without those moments, we can find ourselves living daily without a mindfulness of where God is in our life and if our actions are pleasing to Him … or if they drag us further away into the world.

Advent is the time to take inventory of where we are with God. How are we living as good stewards and mature disciples? What do I need to make amends for in the healing power of the sacrament of Penance? A tornado may not be coming, but Jesus will be returning someday. Hopefully, you will run outside of your home to meet him, and he won’t find you huddled up afraid in your bathroom.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

World, church, and local events continue to challenge our faith. This is all the more reason to continue to come together and find encouragement and hope in God’s word, sacraments, and our faith community. We are people of hope who are called to persevere, even in the midst of confusion and darkness, as we wait for what is to come. We are asked to repent, especially from our tendency to fall into doubt and despair. We are asked to repent and place our trust in Isaiah’s words that God’s world of innocence will be restored. We need to hear John the Baptist’s words today more than ever: “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!” Rather than being disappointed by what human beings and world cannot give, let us commit anew to what God can and will provide.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

What does it mean to be worthy? There are a few different ways to approach this question. Today’s Gospel highlights two: the way of the Pharisees and the way of John the Baptist. Our faith values good works and discipleship. Perhaps, then, we “earn” our worth by adhering to the right doctrines and following the right pious practice. The Pharisees thought they were worthy. Due to their religious pedigree and proper procedures, they were self-satisfied. John the Baptist’s words to them are strong. “Do not resume to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’” Of course, Jesus (and John) don’t omit the responsibility for moral behavior. John gives the Pharisees quite a strong warning in that regard. “Produce good fruit as evidence of your repentance … every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.”

It’s a question of attitude. Of disposition. It’s a matter of the heart. If anyone would be worthy in this scenario, it’s John the Baptist. Jesus himself will name him the greatest of prophets and a great man. John, however, recognizes his own lowly place in the grand scheme of things. “The one who is coming after me is mightier than I. I am not worthy to carry his sandals.” The Pharisees take pride in being “better” than others. John embraces humility in Christ being “better” than him. We don’t self-generate our own worthiness. We receive it as a gift from God.

In a few short weeks, we’ll celebrate the birth of Christ. Bishop Ven. Fulton Sheen wrote about the Nativity in his “Life of Christ”: “Because [Jesus] was born in a cave, all who wish to see Him must stoop. To stoop is the mark of humility. The proud refuse to stoop and, therefore, they miss divinity.” God invites us to prepare our hearts this Advent. When you consider your own life, where are you looking for your worth? This Christmas, are you prepared to stoop? ©LPi

Ministries and Activities

The Knights of Columbus will be hosting their annual Breakfast with Santa on Sunday, December 15, from 7:30 am to 12 Noon in the School Cafeteria. All are welcome!
Menu: Pancakes, Scrambled Eggs, Bacon & Sausage, Tater Tots, Coffee, Juice and Milk.
Prices: Adults - $7.00, Children - $5.00, Children under 5 Free.
Proceeds will go to our annual donation to People with Intellectual Disabilities. Your support would be appreciated.

Christmas time is coming soon and we are preparing for our annual giving tree. Thanks to your generous donations, last year we distributed gifts to 1,182 needy children in our community, local shelters and in surrounding areas. This year we are in need of medium-large size gift bags, tissue paper, curling ribbon, and tape. Donations can be brought to the parish office. We also need adult volunteers that can commit to helping on various days starting December 2 thru December 21. If you are interested and want more information please contact Carol Jimenez at (209) 518-8059.

RELIGIOUS ARTICLES

On December 14 and 15 a group from the Holy Land (Bethlehem & Jerusalem) will be selling religious articles after masses to support the Catholic Christian minorities in Bethlehem. As a tradition, many of the Catholic families in the Holy Land work in small workshops to produce religious articles from olive wood. These articles represent the Christian art of the Holy Land. In the past, they used to sell their artwork to pilgrims who visit the Holy Land. However, these days they are facing an economic hardship as very few tourists visit the Holy Land due to security issues. Many of the Catholic families immigrated and left the Holy Land. The percentage of Christians in the Holy Land has dropped from 20% to less than 1%. Therefore, if this hardship continues as it is now, we believe that in a few years, there will be no Catholics in Bethlehem or Jerusalem. The struggle to preserve the Catholic identity of the birthplace of our savior; Jesus Christ is a serious concern for Catholics around the world. Sales will be used to help and support the Catholics in the Holy Land and to encourage them not to immigrate.

May God be with you and may God richly bless his people for now and forever. Amen.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
John Qumsiyeh

OFFICE OF VOCATIONS AND OFFICE OF PERMANENT DEACONS

To assure the safety of all our children and vulnerable people in our diocese, all ministers and volunteers must go through a process of background checks and training. This is especially true of all our seminarians and permanent deacons.

No visiting deacon may minister in the Stockton Diocese, even for individual sacraments such as a baptism or a wedding, without first providing a current letter of good standing from his Bishop or Religious Superior.

All permanent deacons and seminarians who have an assignment in the diocese go through series of background checks, both national and international. They have to do a Live Scan (Department of Justice and FBI), a VIRTUS training, and a Sexual Harassment training. Also, deacons have to do a Psychological Testing after their second year of the six-year program, and for seminarians they do a Psychological Testing before entering the seminary and a follow-up just before becoming a Transitional Deacon. They are also provided with ongoing opportunities for training through an annual retreat and workshops to promote their human and spiritual and ministerial development.

The Office of Vocations and the Office of Permanent Deacons oversees all these processes of investigation and certification for seminarians and permanent deacons in our diocese.

Visit the Office of Vocations on our diocesan website: https://stocktondiocese.org/vocations
