MISSION STATEMENT

We covenant to give ourselves to Christ as He gives Himself to us in the Eucharist, so every person might be a full, active, & conscious participant in His Church, empowered to share & live the Gospel.

MESSAGE FROM BISHOP COTTA

A Blessed and Happy New Year to all!

As we welcome 2020 and anticipate the joys and challenges of the New Year, let us be open to the graces God has in store for us as the clergy, religious and laity of the Diocese of Stockton.

As we begin this New Year, the month of January can help to set the tone for the whole year. The Christmas Solemnities and celebrations of January give us several spiritual steppingstones on our journey into 2020.

On the very first day of January, we are reminded of the role of the Blessed Virgin Mary. With the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, the Church directs our attention to the protection and prayerful intercession of Our Lady in this New Year.

Next, with the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord, we are to make an extra effort in the New Year to imitate the Magi so as to “adore” Jesus as Lord of our lives. We must be willing to grow in our relationship with Jesus if we are to proclaim his gospel as his disciples. We are called to lay down our gifts and talents before him in this New Year.

As the Magi were warned in a dream to go home by another route, we too must begin this year on a different road. We are to avoid the detours that distract us from “the way.” This year, 2020, will ask us to direct our lives to journey together on the road of repentance, ongoing conversion and evangelization. This is a challenging route, but at the same time, it is one filled with graced opportunities. These opportunities will assist us to grow in holiness.

Throughout the year we must persevere on the right path in order to avoid the spiritual obstacles and stumbling blocks along the way. In so doing, we, as were the Magi, will be delivered and escape the traps of the “spirit of Herod” which attempts to deceive and destroy us.

Following Epiphany, we will celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. Even though the Christmas season will come to a close with this Feast of the Lord, it will direct us to the very beginning of where it all started - our baptism!

To begin this year on the right spiritual footing, we must go back to the beginning when we were presented to the Church by our parents for Baptism. As we were baptized in the name of the Most Blessed Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, each of us became a child of God, a light to the world, one clothed with the Risen Christ. Throughout this New Year we need to remind ourselves of our identity in Christ Jesus.

In this New Year, 2020, we must remember that we are renewed and empowered by the death and resurrection of Christ by way of the Sacrament of Baptism. We must be reminded of the high dignity to which we have been called. As Pope Francis has stated in regard to “living” the Sacrament of Baptism: “What a great gift and what a great responsibility.”

With a renewed sense of hope, let us take these early steps of our journey into the New Year with a greater love and commitment to Christ. May we realize our role and our “great responsibility” of being sent to be proclaimers of the Good News. Let us go in peace, entrusting this New Year to Mary, Mother of God and Mother of the Church, as we glorify the Lord by our lives!

Happy New Year!
Bishop Cotta

SUNDAY’S READINGS

First Reading:
The people who walked in darkness
have seen a great light;
upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom
a light has shone. (Is 9:1)

Psalm:
The Lord is my light and my salvation. (Ps 27)

Second Reading:
I urge you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ,
that all of you agree in what you say,
and that there be no divisions among you,
but that you be united in the same mind and in the same purpose. (1 Cor 1:10)

Gospel:
From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say,
"Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." (Mt 4:17)

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Do you feel overly oppressed or burdened by life’s demands or feel unsettled and anxious about where you find yourself? Many walk through life carrying very heavy sacks on their shoulders and are weighed down by them. Moments of joy and light are far and few between, with darkness and disappointment being more the norm. God desires that we live in light and experience joy. Christ has revealed this to us. Often, we give the world and things we have created too much power over us. We lose our sense of playfulness and freedom and allow other people and things to define and influence us. We are asked to reclaim ourselves today and realize that we are being asked to spread the Gospel of joy. Are we able and willing to do this?

@LPI
PRO LIFE CORNER

“I think the American people are going to wake up. The Supreme Court has done us a favor. They have finally taken the mask off of what the plan is. They have taken the mask off of how far they will go in the destruction of unborn life, of how far they will go ultimately in the destruction of the elderly and infirm.”

Dr. Pat Robertson

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

QUESTION:
How do I discern if a call to do something big is really from God?

Answer:
Each day we face plenty of decisions about following God: whether or not to pray, how to treat people, and how to prioritize our time. Sometimes there can be something much more significant we discern: a vocational call, a promotion at work that requires a move, or a new ministry position at church. In addition to a pro-con list or a cost-benefit analysis, here are a few things to prayerfully consider and to talk over with trusted individuals.

Does it conform to God’s will revealed in the Church? God doesn’t call us to do something that contradicts the moral law. Will it encourage spiritual growth? Sometimes we need to choose between multiple good options. Consider the personal impact on you and others you are responsible for, like family. Other times we might be invited to do good for others, but when we assess our other life commitments, we see that saying yes to this would actually impede our prior responsibilities in the long run. Does the call seem consistent? This isn’t to say that God won’t do something new. Even so, consider if the call is consistent with your gifts and abilities. Can you see a “through-line” so to speak, with how your experiences have led you to this point? Do others confirm it? Share your reflections with trusted, insightful confidantes. Have they seen the same things you have, or are they bringing up new points to consider? Humbly add their relevant points to your considerations. Don’t forget your gut. After you’ve carefully considered everything in your mind, don’t neglect your instincts. Does your heart say yes or no?

@LPI

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY

Drop Your Nets and Be Free

There are times I wish I had no obligations. It would be great to take my wife’s hand, hop in the car, and drive into the sunset. Where we were going would not matter as much as the fact that we would have nowhere we had to be. There would be nothing we had to do. No bills. No commitments. No problems. Freedom!

Life doesn’t work like that, however. When Jesus came along and asked some fishermen to drop their nets and follow him, they did just that. Wow! In some ways, they experienced true freedom. That is what Jesus offers all of us. Yet, true freedom looks quite different than my dream scenario.

In living in the true freedom that Jesus offers, there are things we must do and places we must go. That is because freedom only exists in following God’s will, not our own. We are called to be and called to give ourselves completely to God without reservations. We always have the free will to not respond to His call, but we will find that a negative answer may complicate our lives even further. God’s path for us calls on us to give freely of what we have been given. Saying no to that call means we carry the weight of those gifts. We were never meant to keep them. The path of God’s will may seem long and winding, but it is the one that leads us into that sunset. It is the way to true freedom.

Ministries and Activities

The Giving Tree Coordinator, Carol Jimenez, would like to give special thanks to all the families that donated gifts to those in need this Christmas. Because of your generosity we were able to provide gifts for close to 2,000 children. We would like to thank La Rosita Carneceria, Cardoza Enterprises, Starbucks, and Frances Sia for their generous donations. Also, thank you for helping with the giving tree to the following groups and people for their monetary donations and dedication of time: St. Anthony’s Student council, Paris Nails, Nichole & Geoffrey Israel, and CTDI in Tracy. In addition, we would like to show our appreciation to the Giving Tree Committee that worked countless hours behind the scenes to make this a very Merry Christmas for the families in our community. The Committee members are: Greg DeLoa Jr, Claudette Alves, Stephanie Ibarra, Cindy Bouthillier, Madelein Gonzales, Diane Rosenstein, Addie Vahlen-sieck, James Martinez, and Henry Jimenez.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY
If someone would like to request a shawl (for ladies) or lap robe (for men), please send an e-mail to prayer.shawls@yahoo.com. Shawls and lap robes are not just for those who are ill; they are also given out to celebrate a special occasion such as an anniversary. A message of love and caring comes with each shawl or lap robe and the

GOSPEL MEDITATION

It begins! Jesus is doing something new. “He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea.” Jesus leaves his family, his profession of carpentry, and everything he has known and loved for the previous 30 years. He goes because it is time. Something new is beginning, and Jesus will not begin it alone.

“As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers … he walked along from there and saw two other brothers.” What does he say to these men? “Come after me.” These words are for Peter and Andrew, for James and for John. They are also for all of us.

“Come after me.” The adventure of discipleship will be strange, wild, and unexpected. The Apostles surely didn’t know what they were getting into. But the invitation is accompanied by a promise. “I will make you fishers of men,” Jesus tells the first Apostles. No more will their priorities be limited to this particular village, to the square miles of the Sea of Galilee. Their eyes will be open to the kingdom of God, and their priorities will shift.

Most of us will not be called to roam the countryside, but we are invited to a similar shift of priorities. “Come after me,” Jesus says. “At once they left their nets and followed him.” Drop the nets of what you’ve demanded your life to be. Drop your self-seeking priorities. Drop your concept of religion as a Sunday obligation and no more. Drop your disregard for those outside your immediate social sphere. Whatever it is that keeps you from seeing as Jesus sees, from loving as he loves, start to drop it today. Because the kingdom of God is waiting for your yes!

INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA
¿Te sientes demasiado oprimido o agobiado por las demandas de la vida o te sientes inquieto y ansioso por el lugar donde te encuentras? Muchos caminan por la vida llevando sacos muy pesados sobre sus hombros y son abrumados por ellos. Los momentos de gozo y luz son lejanos y escasos, con la oscuridad y la desilusión siendo más la norma. Dios desea que vivamos en la luz y experimentemos gozo. Cristo nos ha revelado esto. A menudo, le damos al mundo y las cosas que hemos creado demasiado poder sobre nosotros. Perdemos nuestro sentido de alegría y libertad y permitimos que otras personas y cosas nos definan e influyan. Se nos pide reclamarnos hoy y darnos cuenta de que se nos pide que difundamos el Evangelio de la alegría. ¿Somos capaces y estamos dispuestos a hacer esto? ©LPi
