MESSAGE FROM FR. CHAD

Bishop Cotta has advised pastors that they may, at their discretion, suspend Communion from the chalice due to the concern about the Coronavirus. I have spoken to many of you about this and have decided at this time we will continue to provide the Precious Blood.

However, both I and the Bishop are telling parishioners it is OK not to partake of the chalice if you have a concern. At a later date, with more information, I may decide to suspend it completely for a time. My point is that I want you to be comfortable at Mass and not overly concerned about these choices. To lessen these concerns, I ask:

Please stay home if you are sick with the flu or have cold symptoms, it is not a sin to miss Mass if you are sick.

Please refrain from handshakes and hugs for the sign of peace if you are uncomfortable, you do not have to partake of the Chalice, if you are comfortable with this risk, you may partake.

I am removing the holy water from the small fonts at the doors. The large baptismal font will always be available. If you choose to dip your finger into the chemically treated big basin that is your choice.

For those who prefer to receive the Eucharist on your tongue, you may continue to do so but I would strongly recommend to prayerfully consider receiving in the hand at least until flu season concludes. Inevitably the priest has contact with saliva in this manner and then uses the same hand to give communion to others, not to mention his own contact.

Greeting the priest after Mass is up to you and his discretion. Some priests may continue to greet. Others may not. You are not obligated to greet either.

Not everything the media has presented has been fact checked and there is a learning curve to this virus. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention states as of Feb. 26, 2020, the regular flu is showing much more of an impact on Americans than Coronavirus.

We do not want to panic early. However, we will start with some precautions and monitor updates and information provided by the San Joaquin County Health Department and the State of California.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Chad, Pastor

Message from Bishop Cotta

As we look at our lives and the many ways God has blessed us, let us give back a portion to the Bishop’s Ministry Appeal as a way of saying thank you to the Lord. The BMA helps to fund the programs and services of the Diocese. Our parish benefits from these programs in many ways. If you have yet to make your pledge to our parish’s annual support of the ministries, please consider doing so today. Pledge envelopes can be found in the pews and BMA bulletins can be found in the vestibule. Thank you for your prayerful consideration. Checks should be made payable to the BISHOP’S MINISTRY APPEAL TRUST.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

St. Anthony’s Prayer Shawl Ministry meeting will be on Wed., March 11 at 10:00 a.m. at the home of Michelle Harmon. Please call Michelle at 824-8756 for further information. New members are always welcome.

If someone would like to request a shawl (for ladies) or lap robe (for men), please send an e-mail to prayer.shawls@yahoo.com. Shawls and lap robes are not just for those who are ill; they are also given out to celebrate a special occasion such as an anniversary. A message of love and caring comes with each shawl or lap robe and the giving of the shawl or lap robe enriches the giver as well as the recipient.

SUPPORT ST. ANTHONY’S WEEKLY BULLETIN
Bud Bien of Liturgical Publications will be working on setting up the advertising for our weekly bulletin the week of March 23rd. Please consider advertising in the bulletin since the revenue from the ads is what will make our bulletin possible and at no cost to the parish. The ads are also tax deductible.
Advertisements can be purchased for a business, or a sponsor ad can be purchased supporting the parish with a Last Will and Testament or community service organizations. We need and appreciate your help! If you are interested or want more information, you can call Bud on his cell at (952) 240-1747 or call him at the parish office at (209) 823-7197 the week of March 23rd. We also ask that you patronize the people who do take ads and help support their businesses.

MEDITACION EVANGELICO

Segundo Domingo de Cuaresma; la semana pasada tentación, y ahora transfiguración. Grandes contrastes que nos llevan a reflexionar en la grandeza de la presencia del Señor entre nosotros. Al resistir la tentación es que llegamos a la transfiguración. Es un juego de armonía de la gracia de Dios en la vida del ser humano. La oración colectiva de la Misa nos ayuda a reflexionar en la maravilla de la Transfiguración: “Señor Dios, que nos mandaste escuchar a tu Hijo muy amado, dignate alimentarnos íntimamente con tu palabra, para que, ya purificado nuestra mirada interior, nos alegremos en la contemplación de tu gloria.” Todos hemos sido llamados a la vida y a la luz que brilla en Cristo Transfigurado como lo atestiguan Pedro, Santiago y Juan. La Transfiguración llama a la conversión desde el fondo del corazón.

¿Qué propósito tienes en esta Cuaresma? ¿Dónde debes buscar la conversión? El Evangelio de hoy invita al encuentro con Jesús en la montaña. Si nos fijamos bien y escuchamos con cuidado, notaremos que Jesús nos mostró quien es en realidad en el misterio de la Transfiguración. Por esto Pedro le dice, convencido de la hermosura del resplandor, “Señor, ¿qué bueno sería quedarnos aquí! Si quieres, haremos aquí tres chozas, una para ti, otra para Moisés y otra para Elías.” “Quedarnos aquí” pero ¿Dónde estamos? ¿Es bueno el lugar donde estamos para quedarnos? Pidamos en esta Eucaristía que el Espíritu Santo nos ayude a comprender que somos hijos e hijas de Dios y lo que esto significa.
