<td>Don’t forget to sign up at your local library for their Summer Reading Program!</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Trace your hand and your child’s hand. Talk about sizes (bigger and smaller)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Did you know May is National Bike month? Older kids can start learning to ride a trike, and little ones enjoy riding in a stroller or toy car.</td>
<td>Construct a fort inside or outside and let your child’s imagination go free!</td>
<td>It’s Cinco de Mayo! Talk with your child today &amp; encourage them to respond. Practice is how kids learn!</td>

<td>Happy Mother’s Day! Help your children make a card or celebrate the mother figure in their life.</td>
<td>Practice your counting. Find 10 red things around the house. Now look for 10 green things.</td>
<td>Go on a backyard bug hunt with your child. See what creepy-crawlys you can find.</td>
<td>Getting more packages in the mail than usual? Save a few boxes and construct a fort instead. Let your child’s imagination go wild.</td>
<td>It’s Flip Flop Day.</td>
<td>Is your toddler obsessed with your phone? Call Denver Public Library’s 24-7 Phone-a-Story line. Just dial 720-865-8500 and follow the instructions.</td>
