About Us

Sirena Productions has a mission to bring culturally relevant arts to the community. It thrives on admiring and celebrating the beautiful culture and diversity of the Latinx community, with a mission to tell their stories authentically and with purpose.

Meet the Cast & Crew

Lorena San Pedro (Rosalie) is a young latina actress who always had a love for theatre. Through her education at Tulo-so-Midway, she was consistently involved in the arts through many stage performances. A few of her key performances include her role Rosalind in Moon Over Buffalo, Maggie in Lend Me A Tenor, and her Samuel French award-winning role Emma in Over the River and Through the Woods. She continues pursuing her passion through private contracting and consulting, and often volunteers with local school districts to help incite this same passion for the arts.

Elyda Vasquez (Ana) is an aspiring actress based out of Corpus Christi, Texas. She was professionally trained by Debby Ramirez and Lyn Esquivel throughout high school. She has a deep passion for stage plays and plans to make it big! She has such credits as Ana - Real Women Have Curves (2016), Vicereine - The Sins of Sor Juana, Ana - Living Out, Joanne - Rent, as well as Ouiser Boudreaux - Steel Magnolias! Elyda Plans to pursue acting at the professional level! So keep an eye out!

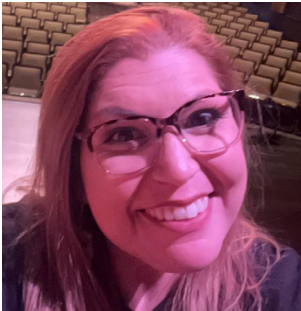

Claudia Villareal (Pancha) is a proud member of the Screen Actor's Guild and holds a Journeyman's makeup artist certification. She has been featured in several industrials, commercials, music videos, and television shows that include but are not limited to CSI, Deadline Crime with Tamron Hall, HEB, Legal Zoom, Stripes, Eminem, E! Entertainment, LapBand, and has worked alongside director Richard Linklater. Also an award winning children's book author, she is currently touring schools with her second book, The Bully Who Learned to Love.

Meet the Cast & Crew

Deborah Ramirez (Dona Carmen) is a professional actress, educator and acting coach. She has an Associates of Fine Arts in Drama from Del Mar College and a Bachelors of Arts in Communication Arts from Texas A&M Corpus Christi. She has worked professionally in print and film, becoming a member of the Screen Actors Guild in 2011, and has been in numerous theatre productions all around the Coastal Bend, winning 3 Sammy Awards at the Harbor Playhouse. Her last project was the short film maria Maria for the 2023 CC7D Film Festival. Mrs. Ramirez taught Theatre Arts in the public school sector for 14 years at both the middle and high school levels. She has coached students to the State and National Levels of Speech and Theatre Competitions and has judged all levels of competition as well. She is excited to be a part of Sirena Productions first theatrical production.

JoJanie Segura Moreno (Estela) is a Corpus Christi native and is so excited to be back in town and a part of this production. She is dedicated to her love of the arts and cannot express enough gratitude to this wonderful cast and the Aurora Arts Theatre for allowing her dream and passion to become a reality. As executive producer of Sirena Productions she is thrilled to have the first company show be a collaboration with this theatre and cast. She wants to thank her family and friends for their unconditional love and support and she dedicates this show to her children JoeCarlos and Cariella Jane for being her driving inspiration and her mom Janie Segura for always being her reminder of what it is to lead with strength. “Here we go, Adelante!!!”

Marisela Saenz is genuinely grateful for each experience she gets the opportunity to be in. Active in theatre since high school, she'll usually never pass on a project when given the chance because theatre is the ultimate creative space she knows. Having worked in multiple productions, some favorites including: Little Shop of Horrors, Tiny Tim's Christmas Carol, and You're a Good Man Charlie Brown, she's thrilled to add on Real Woman Have Curves to her repertoire. Marisela is honored to be the stage manager for a wonderful cast of strong women in the production.

A BRIGHTER FUTURE TOGETHER

At AEP Texas, we want to power change by supporting the arts. That's why we support the Aurora Arts Theater, a community touchstone of live theater in the Coastal Bend. Let's break through boundaries and provide transformative experiences for the community. Working together, we deliver the energy to inspire dreams, and that's power that really builds a bright future.
