SPEAKERS & SESSIONS

BILL WERNER

Bill Werner has been a licensed funeral director and embalmer for the past 25 years. Since November 2011, Bill has worked for The Dodge Company as a sales representative, and currently as the Assistant Sales Manager/Director of Technical Resources. In addition, he has been an instructor in all aspects of Mortuary Science for over 24 years, and recently retired as a Colonel from the U.S. Army Reserves after over 30 years of service.

“U.S. Military Mortuary Affairs: Past and Present ”

This program is a broad-based recap of military mortuary affairs in the United States and will include a variety of materials such as a historical perspective of military mortuary affairs with specific references to past conflicts. At the conclusion of the presentation, participants should have a thorough working knowledge of what goes into returning America's fallen heroes to their awaiting families, from the time of death, the dignified transfer, and ultimately their final trip home for funeral services. This presentation is based on my 30+ years of service in the U.S. Army Reserves and some of the experiences I have been a part of as a Mortuary Affairs Officer while deployed and on active duty.

TAWNIA STEINHOFF

Tawnia Steinhoff attended Kansas City Community College, graduating in 2001 with an Associate in Arts Degree in Applied Science – Mortuary Science and became licensed as a funeral service practitioner in 2002. Prior to being employed as an embalmer and technical adviser for the Iowa Donor Network for three years, she spent seven years with Bertrand Funeral Homes of Knoxville and Pleasantville as an embalmer and funeral director. Tawnia currently works as a sales representative for the Dodge Company since 2017, serving; north and western Iowa, Nebraska, middle North Dakota and eastern South Dakota.

“Embalming Tricks & Treats, To Include Helpful Hints”

For every embalming “glitch” encountered, there is a resulting fix. Admittedly, not all fixes are what you may expect. Tawnia will share ideas for using items already in the prep room in new or modified ways. Sometimes it's an instrument that is used in a new way; other times, a product used in combination with another that no one ever thought of before.
