

WHAT'S NEW?

DCH has had a very busy fall, connecting with community, building our network, enhancing our skillset, and supporting important conversations about housing in Dallas. As we commence planning for 2025, our commitment to local community building is stronger than ever and we look forward to furthering our mission to create and preserve attainable housing in Dallas.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT MANAGER, KRISTEN WILLIAMS, GRADUATES FROM ENGAGE DALLAS!

Please join DCH leadership and board in celebrating Kristen Williams, Community Engagement Manager, for her recent graduation from the Engage Dallas leadership program. Williams joins the prestigious ranks of the 11th Cohort, a group of young leaders committed to making a more profound impact in Dallas County. The Engage Dallas program is a dynamic leadership initiative designed to activate and empower leaders across Dallas County. Established in 2012 as the Mayor's Star Council by Trey Bowles and former Mayor Mike Rawlings, the program is tailored for leaders aged 25 to 40 who are eager to make a tangible difference.

DCH PRESIDENT, JASON BROWN, HOSTS DALLAS MORTGAGE BANKERS ASSOCIATION LUNCHEON

Our President, Jason Brown, represented DCH as an expert on housing, development, affordability, and opportunity at the Dallas Mortgage Bankers Association. This informative panel impacted lenders' understanding of the housing landscape and investment in Dallas. Thank you, Dallas Mortgage Bankers Association!
