Because everyone is one good job away from a stable and promising future.

Hired helped job seekers persist through the pandemic...

5,340 individuals received career coaching to find, prepare for and secure family-sustaining employment.

5,063 children benefited from more predictable home lives as a result of their parents taking active steps toward their career goals, including stable employment.

And land jobs to sustain their families and rebuild the economy,

1,509 individuals secured employment at an average wage of $22.94/hour—an increase of nearly $11/hour before coming to Hired.

Creating a more equitable, diverse, and prosperous economy.

2,341 single mothers

3,557 Black, Indigenous and People of Color

1,151 young adults

585 homeless

In search of a new career, Ann came to Hired after being laid-off.

“The course work and opportunities Hired provided for me were hugely helpful to process my goals and transferable skills and align them to a new career as a Community Health Worker. I am very, very grateful.”

-Ann

Because all people deserve to provide for their families and pursue their purpose.