

This entry represents selections from a year of work by Iowa Capital Dispatch staff to access public records from state government, in many cases despite significant resistance from state officials. They are presented in chronological order but do not all represent a single narrative so they can be read out of order.

<https://iowacapitaldispatch.com/2021/03/05/iowa-capital-dispatch-files-public-records-complaint-over-covid-19-outbreak-information/>

<https://iowacapitaldispatch.com/2021/04/02/state-discloses-long-withheld-data-showing-it-miscalculated-nursing-home-infections/>

<https://iowacapitaldispatch.com/2021/04/05/state-agencies-keep-two-sets-of-inspectors-reports-one-public-one-confidential/>

<https://iowacapitaldispatch.com/2021/05/27/state-agency-falsely-claimed-to-have-complied-with-public-records-request/>

<https://iowacapitaldispatch.com/2021/07/13/iowa-workforce-development-director-subject-of-new-open-records-complaint/>

<https://iowacapitaldispatch.com/2021/08/09/the-reynolds-administration-is-the-least-transparent-in-30-years/>

<https://iowacapitaldispatch.com/2021/09/16/state-board-reporters-complaint-against-iowa-workforce-development-has-merit/>

<https://iowacapitaldispatch.com/2021/09/20/reynolds-lawyer-apologizes-for-withholding-email-but-remains-silent-on-record-request/>

<https://iowacapitaldispatch.com/2021/12/16/iowa-capital-dispatch-sues-governor-for-public-records/>

<https://iowacapitaldispatch.com/2021/12/20/heres-why-iowa-capital-dispatch-is-suing-the-governor/>