

1. The Golden Gate Ferry departs out of the Ferry Building to Sausalito. Please note there is a separate Ferry (Blue and Gold) out of Pier 39 - don't go there! The ferry departs at 10:15 arriving in Sausalito 10:45. Be sure to allow adequate time to arrive. The Ferry Building has a number of shops to visit.
2. Getting to the Ferry Building
  - a. Walking - .9 mile flat walk along Market Street
  - b. Muni - see image below. In addition to the 14 Ferry Plaza bus on Mission and 3rd there are multiple alternate options on 3rd and Market (bus 6/9/9R, streetcar F, underground JKL MN). Fare is $3 or use the Muni Mobile app. Please note that shockingly the buses at times run late so be sure to make allowances.
  - c. Ride service: Taxi, Waymo, Uber

The Ferry will arrive in Sausalito at 10:45am. It will be roughly a 3 minute walk to Spinnaker Restaurant (100 Spinnaker Drive) and 5 minutes to Scoma Restaurant (588 Bridgeway). Please arrive at your designated restaurant by 11:30. Lunch will be served promptly at 11:30 in order to have the option of returning on the 1:35 return ferry. The later ferry departs two hours later.

Sausalito

A ferry trip to Sausalito offers a fantastic blend of scenic views, charming shops, art galleries, and waterfront dining. Here are some great ways to spend a few hours in Sausalito:

1. Stroll the Waterfront and Downtown - Sausalito's downtown waterfront area offers beautiful views of San Francisco and the bay. The promenade along Bridgeway Street is lined with unique shops, galleries, and cafes, making it perfect for a leisurely stroll.
2. Visit Art Galleries - Sausalito is known for its vibrant art scene, and galleries like Galerie Elektra and Sausalito Center for the Arts showcase local and international artists. Even a quick stop can give you a taste of the town's artistic flair.
3. Explore the Floating Homes - Take a short walk or bike ride to Sausalito's famous floating home community, especially at Gate 5 Road. This area is home to colorful and eclectic houseboats with a unique history and architecture that make for excellent photo opportunities.
4. Wine Tasting - Sausalito has several options for wine enthusiasts, such as Real Napa and California Wine Merchant. Enjoy local wines in a relaxed setting with views of the bay.
5. The Bay Model Visitor Center - For something offbeat and educational, the Bay Model Visitor Center offers a massive, 1.5-acre hydraulic model of the San Francisco Bay. It's free to enter and provides an insightful look at the bay's water flow and environmental challenges.
6. Lunch with a View - Sausalito has plenty of waterfront dining options. Scoma's Sausalito and the Spinnaker offers fresh seafood with incredible views, while Bar Bocce has a more casual, outdoor vibe with wood-fired pizzas right on the bay.
7. Hiking or Biking - If you're feeling active, consider renting a bike to explore the scenic Marin Headlands, or go for a short hike at Fort Baker for views of the Golden Gate Bridge. Many bike rental shops offer one-way rentals if you want to cycle back to San Francisco.
8. Shopping for Unique Finds - Sausalito's boutiques are a great place to shop for unique jewelry, home decor, and gifts. Look for local favorites like Driver's Market for gourmet finds or Heath Ceramics for beautiful handmade pottery.
9. Kayaking on Richardson Bay - If you're interested in some water activities, kayaking in Richardson Bay offers a chance to see Sausalito and the surrounding nature from a different perspective. Kayak rentals and guided tours are available if you want to paddle around the houseboats and marina.
10. People-Watch and Relax - For a more relaxed visit, grab a coffee or gelato at Lappert's Ice Cream or a drink at Barrel House Tavern and enjoy some people-watching on the waterfront.

This combination of scenic views, art, and local flavors makes Sausalito an ideal place to explore for a few hours.
