

How to Conjugate 'Prendre' (To Take) in French (Present Tense)

listen on the podcast

'prendre' (to take) in the present tense:

- je prends (I take)
- tu prends (you take)
- il / elle prend (he / she takes)
- on prend (we take - informal)
- nous prenons (we take)
- vous prenez (you take - formal or plural)
- ils / elles prennent (they take)

example sentences:

- Je ne prends pas de café le matin. (I don't have a coffee in the morning.)
- Tu prends toujours le bus pour aller à l'école. (You always take the bus to go to school.)
- Il prend son temps pour répondre. (He takes his time to answer.)
- On prend un verre ce soir ? (Shall we grab a drink tonight?)
- Nous prenons beaucoup de photos en vacances. (We take a lot of photos on vacation.)

- À quelle heure vous prenez votre déjeuner ? (What time do you have lunch?)
- Elles prennent des cours de français ensemble. (They take French classes together.)

free grammar masterclass

3 Steps to Correct French Sentence Success

So you can string magnifiques French sentences together without an app, phrasebook, or awkward charades. 😜

REGISTER FOR THE FREE MASTERCLASS