WORKSHOP 1

Tools to Thrive: The Trevor Project

FACILITATED BY COURTLAND TAPP
ROOM: TESLA (FLOOR 3)

This workshop will be facilitated by Courtland Tapp. He will lead a discussion regarding suicide prevention and crisis response, and will introduce Kevin & Benji from The Trevor Project. Kevin & Benji will then describe what Trevor Project services exist for LGBTQ+ youth & young adults in terms of suicide prevention, crisis response, and more. Court will facilitate a Q & A for LGBTQ+ youth/young adults towards the last 15 minutes.
A panel of transgender, gender non-conforming, and a partner of someone who is will be opening up about their identities, their experiences, and their lives. Come listen to them tell their stories, and ask questions. Learn about gender identity, and what that can look like in a variety of ways.

This Workshop invites participants to hear stories and share their personal experiences with intersectional gender, race and class. Peppermint will share her journey and discuss how it influences who she is today.

WayOUT was started by a group of friends in San Francisco to help change what it means to grow up as a sexual minority in America. Come chat with three of wayOUT’s members about their own personal experiences from coming out to building their professional careers and everything in between.
