INDIVIDUAL SUPPORT
Sojourner can HELP.

Are you in a relationship with someone who...

- Keeps track of your time?
- Makes it difficult for you to see others, go to school, see the doctor or go to work?
- Destroys your belongings?
- Hurts you, your children or pets?
- Controls your money?
- Humiliates you or makes fun of your beliefs?
- Forces you to have sex?

Abusers use fear, guilt, shame and intimidation to wear you down and maintain power over you. Your abuser might threaten you, hurt you or hurt those around you, including your children or pets.

What is family violence?

Family violence is a pattern of behavior that can include emotional, verbal, spiritual, sexual, financial or physical abuse by someone in your family or with whom you have a romantic relationship. Family violence happens in all types of homes, to all kinds of people—regardless of age, race, education, sexual orientation, marital status, economic status or ability.

If you know someone being hurt...

- Listen and be supportive.
- Respect and understand that they are the experts of their own experience.
- Let them know the abuse is not their fault and that they are not alone.
- Refer them to Sojourner for supportive services.
- Get emotional support for yourself.

If you are being hurt...

Immediately

- Dial 911 if you are in physical danger.
- Contact our 24-hour hotline for support, crisis counseling, information and referrals. Call 414-933-2722 or text 414-877-8100.
- Find safety at our gender-inclusive emergency shelter.
- Create a safety plan with an Advocate.

Once you are safe

- Learn about your legal options.
- Learn about the impact of family violence on your children.
- Bring your child for programming, education and support.
- Get support during meetings with police, prosecutors and other system professionals.
- Get help when filing a restraining order.
- Have an Advocate explain the criminal court process.
- Get support while testifying in court.
- Have an advocate support you through case management services.

Recovering from abuse

- Get help with employment, education, health and wellness.
- Recover from financial abuse and create a plan to repair the damage it has caused.
- Join a group to learn about abuse and get support from others in similar situations.
- Explore eligibility for benefits.
- Get connected to immigration resources.
- Share your story, inspire others to seek help.
