Nearly 200 kids attended the 2019 Baubassin-est Summer Camps

Nearly 200 kids registered in the 2019 Beaubassin-est Summer Camps. Youngsters from 5 to 11 years old had fun with the camp monitors named Coccinelle (Danicka Belliveau), Daisy (Janie Léger), Wall-E (Alexandre Walton), Bleuette (Danie Halloran), Pamplemousse (Renée Cormier) and Clémentine (Chloé LeBlanc).

A total of eight weeks of camps were offered during the summer, four weeks at the Community Centre in Haute-Aboujagane, the Cultural Center in Cormier Village, the Shemogue Golden Age Club and the Saint-André-LeBlanc Community Center, and four weeks at the Père-Edgar-T.-LeBlanc School in Grand-Barachois. Every week had a theme and several interesting workshops were presented, such as the environment with Vision H2O, fitness with Donald Cormier, as well as soccer, kites, nutrition, recycling, a "Paint Night" and even "balloon twisting".

The children were treated with special activities each week, such as presentations by the Homarus EcoCenter and the reptile Zoo, a concert by Colleen Duguay and Christian Landry, a visit of a Haunted House, a visit at the Haute-Aboujagane fire station, and a presentation by Mad Science.

The 2019 Summer Camps ended with an Acadian Week at the Saint-André LeBlanc Center.
