

Dr JOEL SILBERT

MBBS (WA), Grad Dip OHS, FAFOEM, CIME, AMS WorkCover WA

Occupational Physician

MAIN AREAS OF EXPERTISE:

- Medico-legal assessments and independent medical examinations
- Specialist medical risk management advice
- Evidence-based pre-employment medical assessment design & implementation
- OHS policy and procedure development and implementation
- WorkCover approved impairment
- Permanent disability assessments

SPECIFIC SERVICES INCLUDE:

- Early intervention injury management and medical specialist referral
- Workers compensation claims management, review and advice
- Onsite and in-house consulting advice
- Occupational rehabilitation and return to work assessments & implementation
- Fitness for work assessments
- Industry-specific and statutory medical assessments
- Health surveillance Implementation and ongoing maintenance
- Workplace assessments and OHS advice
- Poisons permit protocol development, audit and ongoing management
- Workplace health promotion design and implementation
- Lecturing, education and training in OHS

Dr Silbert is an Australian recognized specialist in Occupational Medicine, with more than 15 years industry experience.

He is an Approved Medical Specialist with WorkCover WA, an executive Fellow of the Australasian Faculty of Occupational and Environmental Medicine (WA) Council and an Independent Medical Examiner with the American Board of Independent Medical Examiners.

Dr Silbert practices all aspects of Occupational Medicine with a specialist interest in Human Capital Risk Management. His experience extends to the resource, refinery, construction and civil contracting, transport and logistics, manufacturing, warehousing and distribution sectors. His expertise includes Early Intervention Injury Management, medico-legal advice and independent medical opinions, pre-employment and Fitness for Work design, implementation and strategic planning for all aspects of Occupational Health.

He advises corporate entities, insurers, self-insurers, insurance lawyers and other health professionals.