United States History
Civil War Textbook Historical Football

Directions – In your group, you must answer the questions correctly in order to advance to the next first down.

- Write your answers in PENCIL using the word bank from each section or from memory
- After you think you’ve completed a section, check with Mr. Fairbanks for accuracy
- For each completed category you earn one 1st down
- You need four 1st downs in order to get a touchdown
- The first team to get into the end zone WINS!

Section 1

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Robert E. Lee</th>
<th>Ambrose Burnside</th>
<th>J.E.B. Stuart</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Joseph Hooker</td>
<td>James Longstreet</td>
<td>George Pickett</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lewis Armistead</td>
<td>George B. McClellan</td>
<td>Buster Kilrain</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tom Chamberlain</td>
<td>Lawrence Chamberlain</td>
<td>George G. Meade</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Arthur Fremantle</td>
<td>Richard B. Garnett</td>
<td>Abraham LINCOLN!</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Winfield Scott Hancock</td>
<td>Thomas Jackson</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. Last in his class at West Point, concerned he might miss the great battle of the war

2. Served in the Mex-Amer War, but was sick at the last battle; Quartermaster in CA when Civil War declared

3. Second in command; nicknamed “Old Pete,” “the Dutchman,” and “my old war horse”

4. Professor of Natural and Revealed Religions and Rhetoric at Bowdoin College; spoke seven languages

5. New Major General of the Union Army; took command two days before Gettysburg

6. Accused of cowardice in a previous battle, now his honor is at stake

7. Irish immigrant in Union Army; “a white-haired man with the build of an ape”

8. General who said, “May God have mercy on Bobby Lee, for I shall have none”

9. Southern gentleman who is a widower and his best friend fights for the Union Army

10. Cavalry General who is supposed to be the eyes of the Conf. Army, but is out joyriding

11. Virginian; turned down leadership of the Union army because he could not fight against his “country”
12. Younger brother of Maine Regiment’s commander; “bright-faced, high voiced,” & “worshipful”

13. British observer for the Queen with the Confederate Army

14. Brilliant but timid Union General who believed Lincoln to be a “well-meaning baboon”

15. Union General, who sent Union forces into a slaughter pen at Fredericksburg

16. Beloved general of Confed. Army who stood like a stone wall at Manassas, wore a Union uniform

17. Said, “With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, -- let us strive on to finish the work we are in… to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace…”

All correct?
FIRST DOWN!

Section 2

1. Official name of the Union Army

2. Nickname for the Confederate soldiers

3. Nickname for the Union soldiers

4. Soldiers who refused to do their duty

5. Meaning a group’s enthusiasm or fighting spirit, it is crucial for winning wars

6. Southerners’ justification for secession and the war

7. Meaning over-excessive pride, it is a fatal flaw – especially for a commander in war

8. Meaning to break away from the Union

All correct?
FIRST DOWN!
Section 3

1. Who said the following quote during the Battle of Chancellorsville: “We must kill the brave ones. We must kill them all.” __________________________________________

2. Who thought the following quote: “I’ll wave no more flags for home. No tears for Mother. Nobody ever died for apple pie.” ________________________________

3. Who said the following quote: “The day of the one-battle war is over, I think. It used to be that you went out to fight in the morning and by sundown the issue was decided and the king was dead and the war was usually over . . . We have trenches now. And it’s a different thing, you know, to ask a man to fight from a trench.” ________________________________

4. Who said the following quote: “But you could lose the war up here. Should have gone to Vicksburg. News from there very bad. It will fall, and after that . . . we must win here if we are to win at all, and we must do it soon.” ________________________________

5. What nickname did the Richmond newspapers give to Lee as an attack on his honor because he worked so hard for defense around Richmond, rather than attack, which was seen as more glorious? ________________________________

6. Which general did Longstreet say “knew how to hate,” and who told his men in battle “I don’t want them brave, I want them dead”? ________________________________

7. Who said the following quote: “Honor without intelligence is a disaster. Honor could lose the war.” ________________________________

8. Who was the politician from New York who shot his wife’s lover before the war? ________________________________

9. What order is given to Chamberlain on the second day of battle? ________________________________

10. What is the following quote describing? “A weird sound, a wail, a ghost, high and thin. For a vague second he thought it was the sound of a man in awful pain, many men.” ________________________________

All correct? FIRST DOWN!
Section 4

1. Which quote best represents General Jackson’s mistake made at Chancellorsville?
2. Which quote best represents Lee’s changing strategy after Chancellorsville?
3. Which quote best represents the feelings of the mutineers?
4. Which quote best represents the relationship between Armistead and Hancock?
5. Which quote best represents the Confederate perception of Robert E. Lee?
6. Which quote best represents the orders given to Lawrence Chamberlain relating to the mutineers?
7. Which quote best represents the problem that Chamberlain faces as he tries to justify to the mutineers the reasons for fighting in the Union Army again?
8. Which quote best represents Chamberlain’s reason for fighting in this war?
9. Which best represents Armistead’s sadness about the promise he made to Mary Hancock, and his memories of his friend?
10. Which is the best representation of the canister?
11. Which is the best representation of the chaos Confederates faced toward the end of Pickett’s Charge?
12. Which is the best representation of Lawrence Chamberlain’s views as he looked at the dead soldiers strewn across the battlefield after the failure of Pickett’s Charge?
13. Which is the best representation of Tom Chamberlain’s feelings after the conclusion of the battle?

All correct? TOUCHDOWN!!!!!!