

SHRM 2012 DIVERSITY & INCLUSION
CONFERENCE & EXPOSITION

Making the D&I Connection

OCTOBER 22-24, 2012 | CHICAGO, ILL.

The SHRM Diversity & Inclusion Conference & Exposition offers you the opportunity to learn how to produce positive and measurable results and change the way your organization does business. Join fellow HR professionals, diversity practitioners and other business leaders to get inspired by, collaborate and network with others who lead workplace diversity initiatives.

This year's conference covers a wide array of topics including how to:

- make the business case for diversity and inclusion
- develop a robust diversity and inclusion strategy that's aligned with your organization's business objectives
- create a globally inclusive and culturally competent workforce
- build measurement and accountability mechanisms ... and much more.

The popular Game Changers series is back this year, featuring senior executives from Nationwide Insurance, Girl Scouts of America, Facebook, Peckham, Inc., SHRM, Xerox, The Office of Personnel Management (OPM) and Weyerhaeuser. These Game Changers will discuss their strategies, setbacks and successes in developing their D&I programs and will provide real-life models for your own efforts.
