

Work together
Win together

Operation Hand Salute is a ground-breaking 12-month education and mentoring program for small service-disabled veteran businesses. Operation Hand Salute will provide cutting-edge training that includes ...

- Executive education at a leading business school
- Ongoing mentorship from successful business CEOs and AT&T executives
- Opportunities to position for AT&T contracts
- Introductions to other global companies

Our objective is simple: to mentor a select group of qualified CEOs to improve their business operations and enhance their ability to win corporate contracts.

TO APPLY, CEOs MUST HAVE:

An annual revenue of at least $3 million

Documentation that their business has been in operation for at least two years

Proof of SDVOB certification through either the Association of Service Disabled Veterans, the Department of Veterans Affairs' VetBiz Registry or the State of CA, Office of Small Business and DVBES (OSBDS).
