The NeighborWorks® Collaborative of Ohio is a statewide, nonprofit organization focused on creating sustainable and affordable housing for Ohioans. Over 70,000 individuals and families have benefited from services provided by NeighborWorks® since 2006. Comprised of nine organizations across the state, NeighborWorks' member organizations provide programs and services such as home buyer education, foreclosure prevention, financial literacy, affordable rental housing and homes for sale. Through their construction, renovation and home ownership-related programs, there is a significant impact on Ohio’s economy, as well as immeasurable impact on thousands of individuals and families who have been able to find safe, decent and affordable housing and preserve the dream of home-ownership.
