GEORGIAN SPLENDOUR

Idyllically set on the riverfront, Linden House is the perfect venue for civil partnerships and weddings.

Home to the London Corinthian Sailors and Sons of the Thames Rowers, this Private Members Club has a truly enviable position overlooking a broad sweep of the Thames.

Linden House boasts a stunning Terrace; the epitomy of elegant sophistication and a space that truly comes into its own on balmy summer evenings when guests mingle and sip on Champagne.

Step through the Georgian façade at Linden House to be wined and dined in beautiful rooms of old-world character and be transported to a bygone era that oozes with charm.

This intimate riverside venue is the perfect location for a bride and groom to create a magical space for a truly sublime day.

INDOOR SPACES

DISTINCTIVE TRANQUILITY

Our indoor space consists of private dining rooms that can be hired in conjunction with adjoining spaces for greater flexibility and capacity.

The Ballroom is our largest private dining room and with three large sash windows that allow the room to flood with natural daylight and views out onto the Front Terrace, it is sure to impress.

Dining 60 | Standing 80

The Captain's Room is the perfect room for an intimate wedding breakfast with your nearest and dearest.

Dining 26 | Standing 40

The Commodore's Room is ideal for weddings requiring a more distinctive atmosphere. Neutral décor and old master style pictures on the wall help to set the tone for a wedding celebration.

Dining 26 | Standing 40

OUR FOOD & WINE

DELICIOUSLY TEMPTING

With Louis Weltje, the ‘enlightened cook’ to the Prince Regent, previously residing at Linden House, our Head Chef certainly has a reputation to uphold. Formal or informal, he’ll ensure our food and drink complement your wedding perfectly; from bowl food and buffets to a luxury four-course sit down wedding breakfast and a completely bespoke dining menu.

To make your wedding extra special our Head Chef has compiled an array of scrumptious morsels, midnight munchies and indulgent delights to fascinate and excite guests of all ages; the choice is yours.

Our sommelier has access to an endless supply of wine merchants and is available to pair your dining menu with a bespoke wine list, carefully created for your very special occasion.
