

Scavenger Hunt!

1. In the Common there is a monument to Prince Hall – a series of black stone pillars that share some powerful history about this Black leader in Massachusetts during the late 1700s. What do you notice about the monument? What about the words carved on it?
2. We all love the big, bright rooster weather vane at First Church Cambridge! Which way is it facing today? What do you notice about the wind right now?
3. Grape hyacinths are sometimes referred to as “blue bells” or “blue bonnets.” Take a close look at these tiny flowers as you walk Mason Street – what do you think they look like?
4. Look along Mason Street for a split-level sidewalk experience! One ledge stays level while the sidewalk gradually descends. Which part will you walk on?
5. Can you find the hexagon (six-sided shape) on the Lesley Brattle Campus? What other shapes do you see?
6. This large circular window is made out of stained glass and is a common feature of Gothic cathedral buildings – what other architecture / building details do you notice on the campus?
7. I can't see anything through this window on campus! What do you think is behind it?
8. Have you seen any Maple ‘spinner’ seeds yet? What do you notice about them?
9. Can you find yellow flowers on campus? What other flowers do you see?
10. Look around campus for a very BIG birdbath! What birds have you seen and/or heard today?
11. Where is this pointy spire along Brattle Street? Look for it and the crosswalk nearby, then make your way to Willard Street, onto Foster Street, then follow Sparks Street to Mt. Auburn Street and the Seckler Playlot! What else do you notice as you make your way through the neighborhood?
12. That's a big rock in front of the Seckler Playlot! What else do you notice about the garden there, or where that playground is located?
13. Can you find a birdhouse with chimes hanging in a tree near the big rock? What do the chimes sound like? What else do you hear nearby? Travel towards Riverbend / Longfellow Park when you're ready!
14. Is that a dragon on the roof of that rink?! Do you think dragons would rather ice skate or play tennis?
15. How long does it take you to go around this circle? How long did it take you to finish this scavenger hunt? Congratulations, you did it, hooray!!
