About the 28th San Diego International Summit

Description and Goals

This Summit is a unique forum for professionals across all disciplines and philosophies to gather for an in-depth exchange of current information on all facets of violence, abuse, and trauma prevention, intervention, and research. We are one of the very few events that includes researchers, practitioners, advocates, survivors, and front-line workers from all disciplines to share information, discuss controversial issues, and engage in difficult dialogues. We strive to infuse our theme of Promoting Resilience Amid Global Challenges into the presentations as well as into the thoughtfulness and professionalism reflected throughout the Summit. We continue to focus on linking research, practice, policy, and advocacy.

The vision of the Summit organizers, co-sponsors, collaborating organizations, exhibitors, and participants is to make a significant, positive impact on eliminating all forms of violence, abuse, and trauma everywhere. We are expecting 1,000 attendees from around the globe to come together drawing from multi-ethnic and multicultural perspectives.

Opportunities for networking are scheduled into the program to enhance informal discussions of cutting-edge research, prevention and intervention strategies, policy changes, innovative methods, healthcare approaches, advanced clinical concepts, and skill-building essentials.

Opening Plenary & Ceremonies

Sunday, August 27th 10:30am – 12:15pm

Keynote speaker: Alissa Ackerman, PhD

California State University, Fullerton/Ampersands Restorative Justice
“Survivor to Survivor Scholar: A Pracademic’s Guide to Healing, Justice, and Connection”

In 2014, after 15 years of silence, Dr. Alissa Ackerman disclosed her 1999 rape for the first time. She had spent the first decade of her career studying sexual violence and victimization but was certain that sharing her lived experience would taint her reputation as an objective sex crimes researcher. The decision to disclose changed the course of her career and taught her many lessons about herself, the needs of people who have experienced sexual trauma, and what true accountability looks like for people who have perpetrated sex crimes. In this plenary, Alissa will discuss what she has learned in the second decade of her career about resilience, overall wellness, and the importance of connection for healing, justice, accountability, and the prevention of sexual harm.

Keynote Speaker: Mia Tretta

Survivor, Future Freshman at Brown University

“Trauma 2 Triumph”

Mia Tretta was shot with a .45 caliber ghost gun in the 2019 Saugus Shooting, and her best friend was killed next to her. After the shooting, she started advocating for Gun Violence prevention. She has worked with many grassroots organizations such as Everytown for Gun Safety, Students Demand Action, Team Enough, Sandy Hook Promise, March for Our Lives, Newton Action Alliance, and Voters of Tomorrow. Her advocacy has brought her all the way to the White House to introduce President Biden in the Rose Garden, during the 2022 National Ghost Gun Regulation Announcement. She has led a Students Demand group of over 175 people, is on the Team Enough Executive Council, Students Demand Action National Advisory Board, the White House Youth Council, and is a Fellow through the Everytown Survivor Network. Mia will be presenting on what it is like as a survivor in the movement and how we can motivate ourselves to continue. Mia will discuss meaningful action we can take to make a change now and discuss the importance of continuing even when it is hard.

AT2. Spousal Assault Risk Assessment (SARA) v3 Training – Elizabeth Gilchrist, PhD, University of Edinburgh

This workshop will provide an opportunity to learn new skills and build on existing skills in assessing and managing risk for intimate partner violence. Intimate partner violence is one of the most common forms of violence and is potentially lethal. Considering the pervasive and serious nature of this problem, it is critical that professionals engage in best practices when assessing and managing risk for intimate partner violence to prevent future tragedies. This training focuses on the Spousal Assault Risk Assessment Version 3 (SARAv3; Kropp et al., 2015), designed for professionals with some background training and knowledge of risk courses. The SARA v3 is an evidence-based decision support tool for assessing and managing risk for intimate partner violence. The third version of the SARA, released in 2015, incorporates all the recent advances in SPJ risk assessment. The SARA has been subjected to scientific evaluation, translated into numerous languages, and used in dozens of countries. The primary aim of the workshop is to ensure that delegates feel confident when assessing clients using the SARA v3 and to develop awareness of how risk management plans can be formulated. A certificate will be provided for evidence of attendance at this workshop, which may contribute to continuing professional development (CPD).
