Healthy Families Build Strong Communities was created to assist children and families impacted by parental incarceration with family reconnection and support.

Incarceration is hard for everyone in the family. Whether you are in a relationship with the incarcerated parent, co-parenting, or are a guardian or caregiver, we can help. We want to support you in strengthening the relationship between your child(ren) and their incarcerated parent during incarceration and the reentry period.

THIS PROGRAM IS FREE AND CONFIDENTIAL

Services include family activities, help meeting basic needs, and connecting you to a supportive community.

If you or someone you know is having thoughts of suicide or is in crisis, contact the crisis team.

The Healthy Families Build Strong Communities program provides family art classes, field trips, family movie nights, child-friendly and in-person visitation, and other events to help families stay connected.

The goal of Healthy Families Build Strong Communities is to ease the burden that children and families may face while a parent is incarcerated. Support groups for children, caregivers, and incarcerated parents provide a supportive community that understands the challenges you may be facing.

INDIVIDUALIZED SUPPORT

Through personalized case management we can help you:

- Meet your family's basic needs
- Facilitate difficult conversations
- Assess and respond to challenges your child might have with peers, school, or daycare

SUPPORT GROUPS
