

A TOUR OF OUTDOOR SCULPTURE IN GREENWICH, CT

The Greenwich Arts Council, a non-profit organization, is supported by nearly 1,000 members. It promotes and fosters the visual, performing and literary arts by nurturing artists and building audiences.

ART IN PUBLIC PLACES

Art in Public Places, a committee of the Greenwich Arts Council, oversees an ongoing program of conservation and maintenance of the public sculpture in Greenwich. The committee also assists the Town in selecting and siting newly donated pieces.

Art in Public Places is a member of Save Outdoor Sculpture, a national organization which strives to preserve the artistic and historic legacy of our nation's outdoor sculpture through public and private partnerships.

DIRECTIONS TO THE GREENWICH ARTS CENTER BUILDING

By Car:

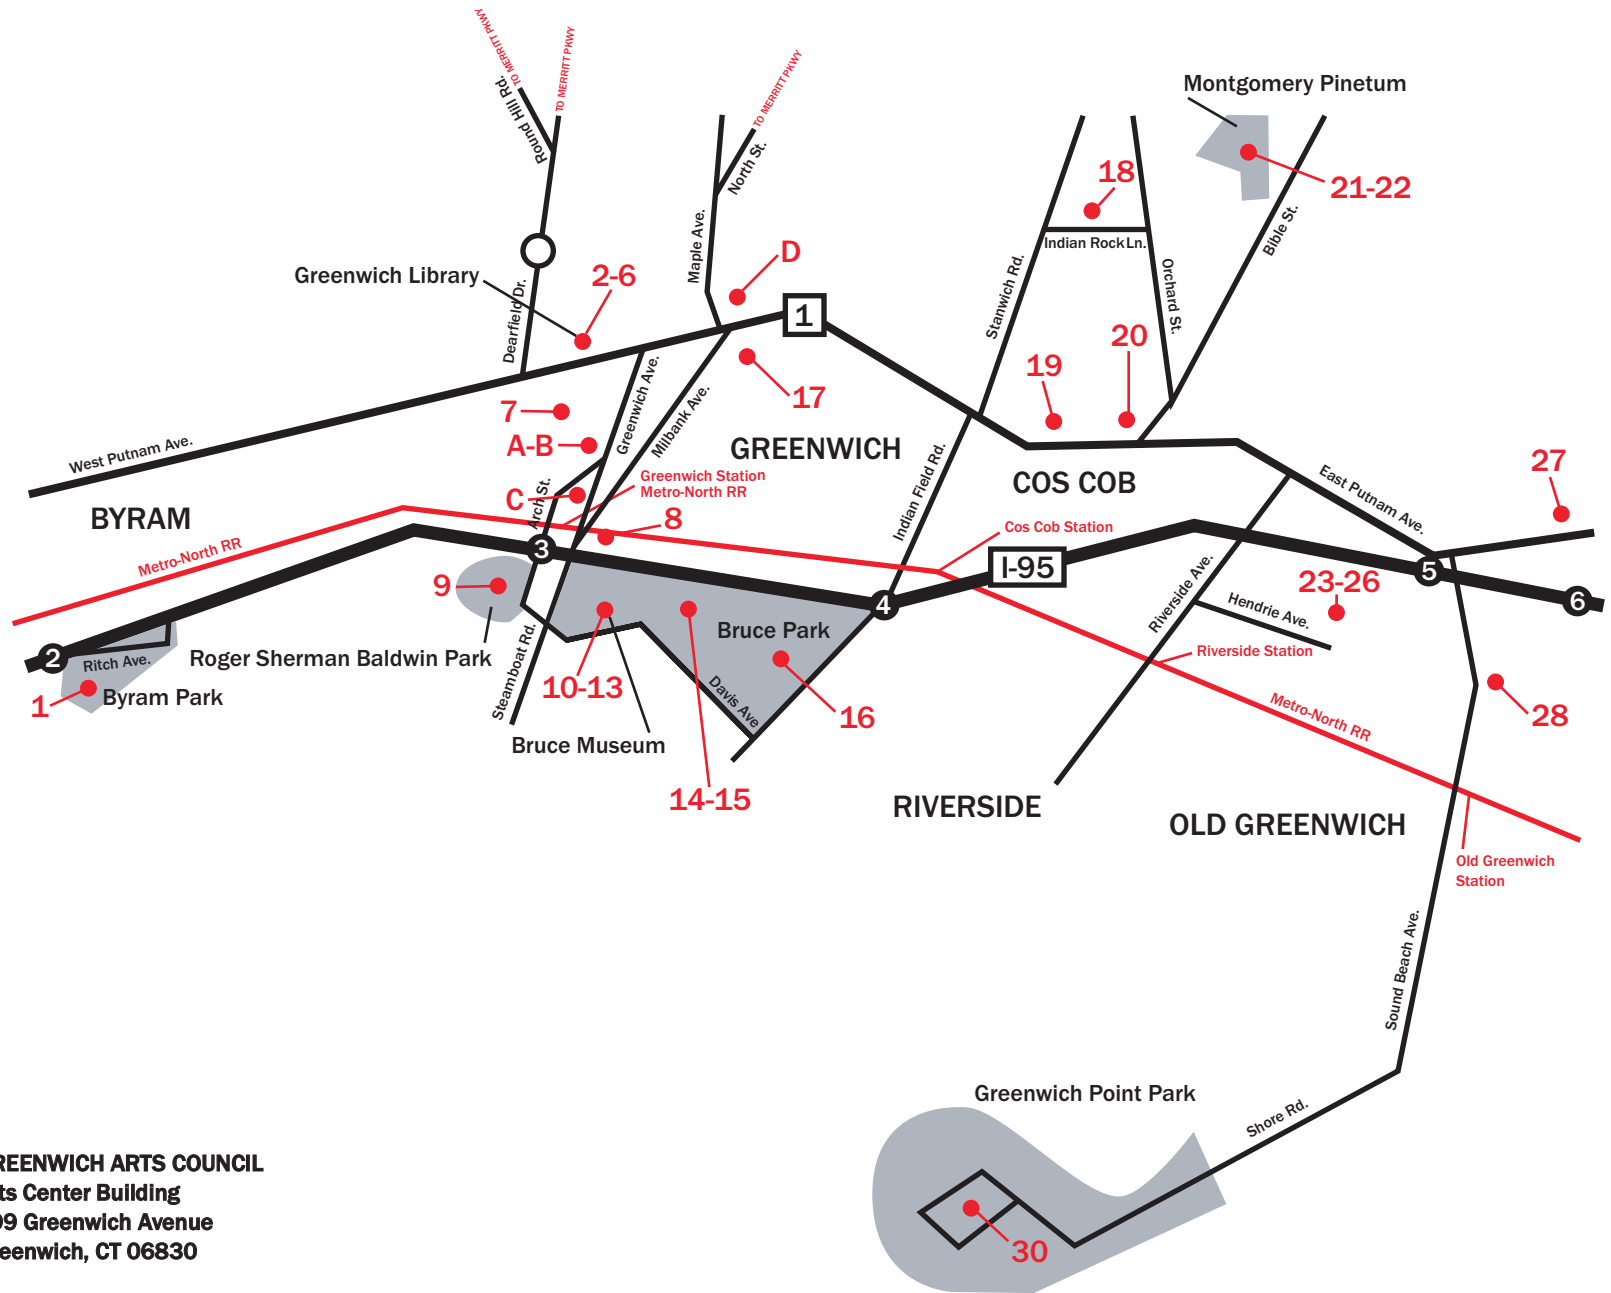

I-95 to exit 3(Arch Street). Go north on Arch Street for .4 mile to intersection with Greenwich Avenue. The Arts center is directly ahead on the northeast corner in a historic building (former Town Hall).

By Train:

Take Metro-North's New Haven Line from Grand Central Station or from points north to Greenwich. Walk up Greenwich Avenue to the Arts Center.
