privacy notices. We do not accept any responsibility or liability for these notices. Please check these third party notices before you submit any personal data to these websites.

Information we receive from other sources

- 2.4. We may be working closely with third parties (including, for example, schools, previous employers, corporate partners, payment and delivery services) and may receive information about you from them.

3. Contact Us

- 3.1. Questions, comments and requests regarding this privacy notice are welcomed and should be addressed to our Data Protection Officer at the Outrunners Charity (England) 41b Montague Road, London, E8 2HN.

4. Uses made of the information Information you give to us

- 4.1. We will use the information you give to us to pursue the following legitimate interests (as applicable to our relationship with you):
- 4.1.1. promote the objects and interest of our programmes, ensure the most efficient management of the Outrunners Charity and ensure that the Outrunners Charity's legal obligations are adhered to;
 - 4.1.2. to store this information on our management information system/s;
 - 4.1.3. to enforce our terms of use with you or any other contract we may have with you;
 - 4.1.4. for the purposes of recruitment;
 - 4.1.5. to enable us to receive your services
 - 4.1.6. to enable you or students from your school to take part in the programmes we offer.
- 4.2. In order to pursue the legitimate interests referred to in paragraph 4.1, we may rely on software applications and other technology to process personal data about you. These include databases and our finance systems. The third parties we use to deliver these applications are carefully chosen and vetted by us to ensure that, among other things, your information is kept secure.
- 4.3. We will also use the information you give to us as is necessary to carry out our obligations arising from the contract (or potential contract) between you and us and to provide you with the information and services that you request from us or receive the services we request from you. For example, we may be recruiting you for a role at the Outrunners Charity, or engaging you to supply us with services and will use personal data where necessary to recruit you or receive your services.

- 4.4. In addition, we may be required by law to do the following (which is not an exhaustive list):
 - 4.4.1. keep an accounting record of payment; and
 - 4.4.2. keep a record to evidence fair recruitment processes.
- 4.5. Inevitably, there will be an overlap between what we do that is necessary to (a) perform our contract with you, (b) carry out our legal obligations and (c) pursue a legitimate interest although we have tried our best to demarcate these as set out above. If you have any questions about these please contact our Data Protection Officer (see paragraph 3).

Information we may collect about you from our website

- 4.6. We will use this information for the following legitimate interests:
 - 4.6.1. to contact you or your school if you have made an enquiry about one of our current, past or future programmes or if you would be eligible to do so;
 - 4.6.2. to administer our website and for internal operations, including troubleshooting, data analysis, testing, research, statistical and survey purposes;
 - 4.6.3. to improve our website to ensure that content is presented in the most effective manner, and your online experience is as effective and appropriate as possible, for you and for your computer;
 - 4.6.4. as part of our efforts to keep our website safe and secure.

Information we receive from other sources

- 4.7. We may combine this information with information you give to us and information we collect about you. We may use this information and the combined information for one of the purposes set out above (depending on the types of information we receive). For example, we may receive a reference from a previous employer relating to you, which may impact a recruitment decision and we may collect details of your dietary needs from your school to enable us to ensure these are met as appropriate when you are taking part in one of our programmes and refreshments are provided.

When we disclose information

- 4.8. In order to pursue one of the legitimate interests set out above, we may share your personal information with:
- 4.8.1. People engaged to work on behalf of the Outrunners Charity for example our Activity Facilitators;
 - 4.8.2. local authorities, education authorities (for example, Ofsted), the Department for Education, SEN coordinators, social services or the police where we have reason to believe there are safeguarding concerns in respect of a child;
 - 4.8.3. corporate partners, professional advisors, suppliers and subcontractors for the performance of any contract or agreement we enter into with them or you.
- 4.9. We may disclose your personal information to third parties if we are under a duty to disclose or share your personal data in order to comply with any legal obligation, or in order to enforce our contract (between us and you) and other agreements.

Where we need to get your consent

- 4.10. We will not market our services to you (other than in accordance with paragraph 4.1.6 above) without your consent and you have the right to ask us not to use your contact details for marketing. Please contact engagement@theoutrunners.co.uk if you no longer wish to be contacted by us.

5. Your Rights

- 5.1. Under the GDPR, you have the following rights:
- 5.1.1. Right to correction - You have the right to have inaccurate personal data about you rectified
 - 5.1.2. The right to erasure - You have the right to request that we delete your personal data where: (a) the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or processed; (b) you withdraw your consent to processing for which we previously obtained your consent; (c) you object to the processing and, as a result, we agree to cease that processing; (d) the personal data has been unlawfully processed; and (e) we are required to erase the personal data in order to comply with the law.
 - 5.1.3. Right to restriction - You have the right to obtain from us the restriction of processing where: (a) you contest the accuracy of the personal data we hold about you; (b) the personal data has been unlawfully processed; (c) we no longer need the personal data but they are required in limited circumstances; and (d) you object to the processing and, as a result, we agree to cease that processing

- 5.1.4. Right to request transfer - In certain circumstances, you have the right to receive personal data from us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and the right to transmit it to a third party organisation.
- 5.1.5. Right to object - You have the right to raise an objection to any of our processing in paragraph 4.6. Please tell us if you object to any type of processing that we do and we will work with you to address any concerns you may have.
- 5.1.6. Right to object to marketing - If you do not want us to process your personal data for direct marketing, please tell us and we will ensure that we no longer do this.
- 5.1.7. Right to complain to the ICO - Whilst we would always prefer it if you approached us first about any complaints or queries you may have, you always have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office.
- 5.1.8. Right to request access - You have the right to access personal data we hold about you. Please contact our Data Protection Officer if you wish to do so at [\[insert details when available\]](#).

6. How Long We Keep Personal Information

- 6.1. We will not keep any personal data about you for any longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the personal data are processed
- 6.2. We follow a personal data retention policy which determines how long we keep specific types of personal information for. For further information about the criteria we use to determine what periods we keep specific information, please contact our Data Protection Officer (see paragraph 33).

7. Use of Our Website

- 7.1. Where we have given you (or where you have chosen) a password which enables you to access certain parts of our website, you are responsible for keeping this password confidential. We ask you not to share a password with anyone. Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we will do our best to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee the security of your data transmitted to our website; any transmission is at your own risk. Once we have received your information, we will use strict procedures and security features to try to prevent unauthorised access.

8. Changes to our Privacy Notice

- 8.1. Any changes we make to this privacy notice in the future will be posted on our website and, where possible and appropriate, notified to you by email. Please check back frequently to see any updates or changes to our privacy notice.
