A BERRY GOOD & NUTTY DAY

Farm Tour with Strawberry Picking, The Nut House & Camarillo Ranch
With Cracker Barrel Old Country Store

Thursday, May 7, 2020

This tour features wonderful experiences and tastes in the historic and agriculturally-rich Ventura County. Take a step back in time at the Camarillo Ranch featuring a beautifully manicured garden and a fully-restored, Queen-Anne Victorian home. A docent-guided tour of the two-story home will showcase 15 rooms filled with period furnishings and treasured items for a snapshot of California ranch life from 1892-1915. Enjoy lunch on your own at the Cracker Barrel Old Country Store, famous for all-you-can-eat biscuits, comfort food, tabletop peg games and more. This afternoon, check out the variety of goodies at Somis Nut House – a family-operated packing house, known for their nuts and dried fruits. Then, at a local family farm, see farm animals and enjoy a tractor-pulled wagon ride through fields of crops with an opportunity to pick strawberries and take home an included 1-lb basket of strawberries (normally the best time of year to pick the County’s highest-valued crop). Involves moderate walking on uneven terrain and stairs to second level of the home.
