FAVORITE FINDS FROM RAGAN CAIN

“I have a passion for finding unique items and introducing them to the world.”

Welcome to the holiday edition of THE FRANCES FLAIR FAVORITE FINDS, a curated list of some of the most unique, fun, and fabulous finds from some of my favorite brands and some I have just discovered. I created The Frances Flair to encourage myself and others to live presently and with a little bit of flair. I love nothing more than to immerse myself in stylish, classic, and colorful inspiration to serve as a reminder to Take the Trip, Wear the Hat, Ride the Bike, Use the Silver. I am so excited to share both the finds and brands with you, my community, and for whatever plans you have this holiday season, I hope my favorite holiday finds inspire you to enjoy this season with a little extra flair.

Merry Christmas

Porcelain Charms by Julie Terrell

After having searched for years for holiday stockings that would complement the sophisticated aesthetic of her interior design clients' homes, Julie Terrell put her art and ceramics experience to work to craft her own unique solution. The heirloom-quality, customizable stockings of Merry by Julie Terrell were born. The unique charms can be used both during the holiday season on stockings or other holiday decor and then again after the holidays for a customized table setting.

WHY I LOVE IT: Elegant and as timeless as ever these customizable stockings will truly last for generations! And these beautiful charms are ones that can be used for both the holidays and any of your celebrations to come.

Jolly Menu Card by Casa Felix

Felix, Felicitas: latin for happy, lucky, fortunate. Casa Felix is a design studio that's home to the storytellers with endearing quirks, the young at heart, the restless wanderers, and those who believe that time and memorable experiences are the most valuable commodities in this world. Their Jolly Christmas menu cards are the perfect addition to any holiday gathering.

WHY I LOVE IT: I love the traditional Christmas design of these cards crafted on the softest 100% cotton paper. We are lucky and fortunate to have Casa Felix in our lives! A recently launched paper brand bringing the greatest designs.

Rachael Robe by Lenora

From brunch to bedtime, Lenora elevates the contemporary woman's home, wardrobe, and accessories through delicately weaving the traditions of the south with contemporary elegance. Lenora was born by threading the passions of two women - with very different backgrounds - into an exclusive partnership focused on detail, quality and customer service. Dina Yang and Claudia Garrard strive to make elegant, timeless products with functionality for everyday living. Each item is hand-sewn in Dina's factory in Vietnam.

WHY I LOVE IT: I'm in love with Lenora's robes and pajama sets, perfect for Christmas morning. The Rachael Robe is inspired by the sumptuous hotel robe you secretly want to steal. This robe is the perfect option for year-round wear. Made with the finest cotton twill and lined with a soft Pima cotton knit. And it has pockets!

Milestone Wand by Heidi Rose

Motherhood is the foundation for Lauren's inspiration for her brand, Heidi Rose. The idea was born after the birth of her second child, the brand's namesake. Lauren wanted to create high quality children's products that could be brought into her family's everyday moments. Heidi Rose products are created with imagination for everyday play and are inspired by beauty with personal touches along the way.

WHY I LOVE IT: I love her Milestone Wand for those very reasons. This beautifully-crafted, double-sided wand has whimsical tassel ribbons and bright stitching around the edges. With a magnetic insert it's easy to personalise with the included heart patch. I recently gifted this adorable wand to a friend and the little fairy hasn't put it down since. A most gorgeous family and brand. Everything Heidi Rose inspires me and I don't even have children! My dream would be to meet this lovely and inspiring family. Do yourself a favor and check out all they have to offer.
