

SACRED DOORS

New UMVIM Site in Denver

Sacred Doors, an urban ministry of Bethany United Methodist Church in Denver, Colorado, invites you to experience a virtual mission journey to learn more about the Denver Metro Area people on the margins. Of course, we hope, by next summer we will all be able to travel and I invite you to consider serving in Denver at Sacred Doors lead you and your team in a service project in person.

SEMINAR:

To get to know the ministry and what they offer to the youth, Pastors Denice and Nani are offering a Seminar to introduce Sacred Doors to the Conference Staff and Conference youth staff and local church youth leaders in the WJ. No cost.

The seminar is Thursday, October 29 at 7:00 pm MST

VIRTUAL MISSION:

To experience what a Virtual Mission is like for youth you are invited to join the mission. This is for Conference Staff and local church youth leaders starting Tuesday, November 10 - Friday, November 13. 9:30 a.m. - noon MST each day with additional 1 pm - 3 pm on Friday.

Our speakers are part of non-profits that work with homeless youths, immigration issues, community home rehab, and a shelter for women and transgendered individuals. Join us as we open some of the Sacred Doors in Denver, Colorado. Cost is $125 per person to support the ministries of Sacred Doors. Mail your check to Bethany UMC; c/o Sacred Doors; 3501 W. 1st Avenue; Denver, CO 80219

To register for either the seminar or the mission go to the Sacred Doors website:

<https://www.bethanyumcdenver.com> Sacred doors