Collaboration – a mechanism to make exponential progress

There is a growing appreciation for collaboration as a mechanism to make big leaps forward. Indeed, many challenges to achieve societal and environmental progress can only be tackled in concert with other actors. D. Grayson, Chr. Coulter and M. Lee, authors of “All In – The Future of Business Leadership” explain how it works. Read more

Science has a lot to offer to Sustainable Development

The complexity of problems related to sustainable development calls for analyses on the interlinkages between SDGs, systemic approaches and long-term scenarios. CSR Europe interviews Eeva Furman, Director of the Environmental Policy Centre at SYKE. She explains how science has much to offer in this process. Read more
'Digitalisation & Work' Conference - discover our line up & speakers

With less than a week to go before the CSR Europe & Huawei conference on 11 October, we are pleased to welcome Luca Jahler, President of the European Economic and Social Committee (EESC) as a keynote speaker. Find out about our 2 other speaker panels, both from business and policymakers. Registrations are still open! Register here.

Sustainability profession under the spotlight

The integration of the ‘sustainability role’ inside companies is moving forward, but is certainly not yet fully achieved. The Greenbiz 5th ‘State of The Sustainability profession’ report indicates that pressure from customers and investors are now 2 main factors that impact an organisation’s sustainability programme. CSR Europe participated to the Greenbiz survey to get a full picture. Read more Download report

Raw Materials Week 2018: meet us there!

This exciting week will build upon a series of events organised by the European Commission mid-November addressing the latest news on raw materials. It will be a unique opportunity for the raw materials community to discuss and exchange on all relevant issues regarding policy, technology, international cooperation, framework conditions, knowledge base and more. CSR Europe’s Alice Pedretti will be participating to 2 sessions Read more

Listen to CSR Europe’s first podcast series!

CSR Europe has published 3 unique good practice examples by our corporate members in our new podcast series on "Capacity Building for Sustainable Supply Chains*, digging deep into each company’s practice on the strategy approach to gain capacity building along their value chains. Listen now

New Video: Circular economy: What are the enablers and barriers?

As a partner of the R2π project, and together with the University of Malta, CSR Europe has authored the Stakeholder Views Report on the Barriers and Enablers to a Circular Economy. By summarising the results of stakeholder exchanges conducted under the project, the report outlines key information for the development of business guidelines and policy recommendations the Consortium will present upon conclusion of the project in 2019. Watch video

Markets

Deep dive and learn about non-financial reporting

Through the engagement of CSR Europe members, a tailor-made working group on non-financial reporting has been set up to match specific needs and questions. The event will take place on 20 November 2018.

Know your investors’ expectations and get them engaged

There is an increasing effort and purpose in engaging investors on sustainability. CSR Europe has set up a dedicated working group that will meet on 21 November to better understand their expectations and engage members more actively in identifying and addressing individual needs. Read more the Newsbundle is October 30, 2018, at 17.00 (CEST).

If you would like to share relevant information on your CSR activities or events with the Newsbundle readers or contribute an Enterprise 2020 blog post, please contact Tulsi Zaveri at tz@csreurope.org.