KEY QUESTIONS
How can you uplift someone here?
Who do you need to centre here?
What dynamics do you want to cultivate here?
Who has the power here?
How can this interactions be designed so that it’s not extractive?
What could you grow here?
What would transparency look like here?
Who’s knowledge are you valuing here?
Or centering here?
What does accountability look like here?
Who do you need to be accountable to?
Who is doing the work here?
Who is equipped / resourced to do the work that is needed here?
What is your positionality here? How might that play out?
What kind of support could you offer here?
Can you build in any connections or interdependencies here with others in your network?
What resources could you make available here?
What needs paying more attention to here?
Is there anything that you’d want to reveal about yourself here? Part of what keeps work honest is acknowledging why we care about it and who we are in relation to it.
Is there any additional research, insight or access to other contexts, that you could provide here?